As an active registered dealer with the Department, this Annual Resale Certificate is sent to you so you can make eligible tax-exempt purchases or rentals of property or services for resale. You must provide a signed copy of your certificate to any seller when making purchases or rentals of property or services that you intend to resell or re-rent as part of your business. You may provide your sellers with either a paper or an electronic copy of your signed certificate.

It is your duty as a dealer to collect and send in the applicable amount of sales and use tax and discretionary sales surtax from your customers when you finally resell or re-rent the property or service at retail. If you have difficulty determining what you may buy or rent tax-exempt for resale, we provide a brochure that will help you: Annual Resale Certificate for Sales Tax (Form GT-800060). If you purchase or rent items which will be used in your business, and the items will not be sold or re-rented, your Annual Resale Certificate should not be used. Remember, there are criminal and civil penalties for fraudulent use of the Annual Resale Certificate.
