

Stetson University Faculty, Administrators in the News

June 2007:

- Doug Lee, President, was mentioned in a University Business (June 2007) magazine article about colleges and universities that provide homes for their presidents.
- Bill Jens, Executive MBA, and Ted Surynt, Associate Dean of Business Administration, were mentioned in a Florida Investor (June) story on Stetson's EMBA program.
- Jeff Altier, Athletics, was quoted extensively in a Chronicle of Higher Education (June 29) story on how Stetson raised $2 million for women's sports.
- Jean West, Interim Dean of Music, was featured and pictured in a DeLand-Deltona Beacon (June 28-July 1) column introducing her new status.
- Cindy Oliver, Teacher Education, was quoted in a Hannibal, Mo., Quincy Herald Whig (June 28) story on the program she is running for young writers this summer at the Mark Twain Boyhood Home & Museum in Hannibal, as part of Stetson's High Achieving Talented Students program.
- John Schorr, Sociology, was quoted in a Daytona Beach News-Journal (June 25) story about the research prize won by Sociology graduate Alison McKellar for her work on Colombian emmigration.
- Ken McCoy, Communication Studies and Theater Arts, was mentioned in a Toledo Blade (June 22) story about a play he is directing in Toledo, Ohio.
- Wayne Bailey, Political Science, was quoted on Central Florida News 13 (June 22) on the potential effects of election budget cuts.
- Doug Lee, President, was pictured and quoted in a Daytona Beach News-Journal (June 18) story about his being one of only 280 college and university presidents to sign an agreement in Washington D.C. to combat global warming through environmental practices on campus.
- Anne Hallum, Political Science, was quoted in a Daytona Beach News-Journal (June 18) story about her experiences during an earthquake in Guatemala, where

- she and two students and others are working for the Alliance for International Reforestation Inc. this summer.
- Deborah Thompson, Enrollment Management and Campus Life, was pictured in a DeLand-Deltona Beacon (June 14-17) as one of the recent graduating class of Leadership DeLand.
  - Bette Heins, Teacher Education, was quoted in a Daytona Beach News-Journal (June 14) story about the retirements of Woodward Avenue Elementary School's principal and two key teachers, all of whom have worked closely with Stetson in its 10-year partnership with Woodward as a professional development school.
  - Anne Hallum and Wayne Bailey, both Political Science, were mentioned and Bailey was quoted in a Daytona Beach News-Journal (June 14) story about the June 13 earthquake in Guatemala, where Hallum is currently leading a group, including two students, doing work for the environmental organization she founded, the Alliance for International Reforestation Inc.
  - Ann Adams, Oboe, was quoted in a Daytona Beach News-Journal (June 12) story about a summer Double Reed Workshop she's conducting at Stetson for secondary school students.
  - Bill Nylen, Political Science and Latin American Studies, was interviewed by Orlando Public Radio WMFE-FM 90.7 (June 11) about the UIM workshop he organized on local government for representatives of various Latin American local governments.
  - Doug and Margaret Lee, President and First Lady, and George and Mary Hood, retired Counseling Center director and longtime assistant to former President and Chancellor J. Ollie Edmunds, were featured and pictured in a DeLand-Deltona Beacon (June 7-10) story about the Lees receiving the inaugural George and Mary Hood Award for their commitment to Stetson's values, which is named to honor the Hoods.
  - Ann Small, Children's Choir; Stephen Ng, Voice; Claudia Gatewood, Community School; Alan Raines, Choral Music; and Jean West, Flute, were praised for their contributions in a DeLand-Deltona Beacon (June 7-10) story about the Children's Choir end-of-year performance.
  - Bill Nylen, Political Science and Latin American Studies, was pictured and quoted in a Daytona Beach News-Journal (June 8) story about the UIM workshop he organized on local government for representatives of various Latin American local governments.
  - Michelle Espinosa, Dean of Students, was quoted in a Daytona Beach News-Journal (June 8) story about suicide prevention.

- Ranjini Thaver, Economics, was interviewed by Orlando Public Radio WMFE-FM 90.7 (June 7) about Stetson's microcredit program and its extension to Tanzania, along with F.A. Kihunrwa, who runs the program there and was visiting Stetson to report on the program, and local microcredit client Kimberly Green of Orange City.
- Ranjini Thaver and Neal Long, both Economics, were quoted and pictured in a Daytona Beach News-Journal (June 7) story about Stetson's microcredit program and its extension to Tanzania, along with Mr. and Mrs. F.A. Kihunrwa, who run the program there and were visiting Stetson to report on the program.
- Randall Hansen, Marketing, was quoted in a Rochester (N.Y.) Democrat and Chronicle (June 3) story about the process of making career changes.
- Michael Raymond, English, was featured and pictured in a Daytona Beach News-Journal (June 3) story about a precocious 10-year-old girl he tutored before his death on April 4.
- Michael Rickman, Piano, was featured and pictured in a Daytona Beach News-Journal (June 1) story about his upcoming performance with Daytona Solisti Chamber Orchestra.
- Doug Lee, President, and Jim Woodward, Music Dean, were pictured in a DeLand-Deltona Beacon (May 31-June 3) photo of the groundbreaking for Mary B. McMahan Hall.

Founded in 1883, Stetson University in Central Florida is a private, liberal arts university that consistently earns high rankings in national college guides. The university's College of Arts & Sciences, School of Business Administration and School of Music are housed on the historic main campus in DeLand. The university system also includes the Stetson University Center at Celebration, and two Stetson University College of Law campuses in Tampa Bay. For more information, visit www.stetson.edu or call 386-822-8920.