

Stetson University Faculty, Administrators in the News

April 2009

Elizabeth Paul, provost, was mentioned in an Orlando Sentinel (April 30) story about her new appointment as provost and vice president for Academic Affairs. Story also appeared in the Orlando Business Journal, MSN Money Central and 18 additional publications and news channels.

Michele Skelton, Integrative Health Science, was named as a new distinguished professor in Integrative Health and the first endowed science chair at the university. Story appeared in the Orlando Business Journal (April 29), Triangle Business Journal (April 29), (Raleigh/Durham), and the Puget Sound Business Journal (April 29).

Paul Lachelier, Sociology, was quoted in a demodirt.com (April 28) article regarding an AP poll examining U.S optimism since the election of President Obama.

Douglas Lee, president, commented in the Daytona Beach News-Journal (April 26) on the passing of Dr. Thurman Smotherman, former Stetson University education professor.

Paul Lachelier, Sociology, was mentioned in a Daytona Beach News-Journal (April 25) story about his community-organizing class and Volusia County's first deliberative opinion poll.

Douglas and Margaret Lee, Grady Ballenger, Gary Bolding, Jim Beasley and Roberta Favis were shown in a photograph in the West Volusia Beacon (April 23) about the ribbon cutting at the new Hand Art Center.

Wendy Libby, president-elect, was mentioned in a Columbia Missourian (April 21) story about Dianne Lynch being named Stephens Colleges' next president. Story also appeared in Connect Mid Missouri and on the University of Connecticut Alumni Web site.

Anne Hallum, Political Science, was mentioned in an Our World 2.0 (April 21) story written by Stetson student Adam Darragh about his experience working for a month in Guatemala with AIR.

Michael Rickman and Routa Kroumovitch, Music, were mentioned in a news-journalonline.com (April 19) story regarding a benefit recital to raise money for scholarships.

Paul Croce, American Studies, was mentioned in a Daytona Beach News-Journal (April 13) Higher Education column about the Tour DeLand Bike Ride.

Rina Tovar, dean of students, was mentioned in the West Volusia Beacon (April 13) regarding Stetson University's position on underage drinking in DeLand.

Mitchell Reddish, Religious Studies, was quoted in the Daytona Beach News-Journal (April 12) on the meaning of the Resurrection.

Donald Musser, Religious Studies, was quoted in the Daytona Beach News-Journal (April 12) about Easter services mirroring churches' differences.

Douglas and Margaret Lee, Grady Ballenger, Karen Cole and Bruce Bradford appeared in a photograph in the West Volusia Beacon (April 9) about the Gillespie Museum's 50th anniversary.

Anthony Hose, Music, was mentioned in the West Volusia Beacon (April 9) regarding the performance of the opera The Bartered Bride.

Andy Baker, Admissions, was quoted in a threeδsix.com (April 7) story about the importance of the admissions essay.

Cindy Brownfield, Public Relations, was quoted in a West Volusia Beacon (April 7) story about the weather-related power outage on the Stetson campus.

Terri Witik, English, had her book of poetry "The Shipwreck Dress" highlighted in the Daytona Beach News-Journal (April 5).