Note: Students in good standing who reenter the University after being absent for one semester or more (fall or spring) do so through the Office of the Registrar. Upon reentry, students must meet the degree requirements of the University Bulletin in effect at the time of their reentry.

Students who are on academic warning or who have satisfied the waiting period after suspension must have the approval of their Academic Dean for readmittance. This can be accomplished by sending a written letter or e-mail to the appropriate Dean. Once approved, student will be advised to contact the Registrar's office for reentry. These students must also meet the degree requirements of the University Bulletin in effect at the time of their reentry.

*Students who have attended other colleges or universities will be allowed to advance register for their courses; however, their registration will be blocked for activation and class attendance if their official transcript has not been received in the Registrar's Office by the first day of class.
