

STETSON UNIVERSITY

Advertise your business with Stetson University

Advertising is a great opportunity for partnership with Stetson university and local business. This is a unique opportunity to reach Stetson community and make contact with potentially 2,000+ students, and 350+ faculty and staff members.

Partnership Opportunities

Stetson Discount Program: The program is designed to promote DeLand's local businesses but offer deals to the Stetson University community. A business can email the Student Government Association at sga@stetson.edu with the offered discount. In return, the business will receive a stick to put in their place of business as all as will be added to the list of businesses offering discounts to students.

Advertise with The Reporter: The Reporter is the University's students newspaper and comes out on a weekly basis on the Stetson. Businesses are encouraged to advertise in The Reporter, because there are a variety of ways to advertise from a full page color add to an insertion. Pricing is subject to change by year. For more information, email reporter@stetson.edu

Participate in Market Day: Market Day occurs on select Wednesdays and allows vendors to come onto campus and sell and promote their goods and services. For more information, please visit: www.stetson.edu/studentactivities or email marketday@stetson.edu
