

Wellness and Recreation Fitness Coach (Federal Work Study)

Wellness & Recreation located in the Hollis Center is accepting applications for work study positions.

Position Description:

Reporting to the Assistant Director of Wellness & Recreation, the student will assist with daily operations of the Hollis Center including, but not limited to:

- Provide quality customer service in the form of interacting with facility patrons on a daily basis
- Supervise all activity for safety within the facility
- Assist patrons of the facility with their workouts, acting as a spotter when needed and being a resource in the weight/cardio rooms
- Provide Fitness Assessments to facility patrons on an as needed basis
- Oversee Preventative Maintenance checks of fitness equipment
- Ensure all fitness equipment is orderly and in proper place
- Maintain the facility by ensuring the environment is clean and free of any hazards
- Monitor Rinker Fieldhouse usage
- Supervise occupants using the facility and ensure they are following building policies
- Assist with planning, marketing, and management of the departments services and events
- Attend all assigned shifts, staff meetings, trainings, workshops, etc.
- Other duties as assigned

Requirements:

- Eligible for a work study position through Financial Aid
- Candidate should possess exceptional customer service skills
- Candidate should be energetic, organized, and possess strong interpersonal, communication, and teamwork skills
- Candidate should have a strong interest in personal wellness
- Experience with Word, Excel, and online research

Benefits:

- Paid monthly on an hourly basis (pay is determined by your financial aid eligibility and award)
- Opportunities to learn about personal and professional development
- Interact with employers
- Learn details about upcoming events and programs

APPLICATION PROCEDURES: Interested applicants should fill out the online application located here or send a resume and cover letter to wellnessandrec@stetson.edu.