

Detection of Deception & Critical Interviewing

Sponsored by
QVerity and Stetson University College of Law

STETSON LAW

Thursday, June 16, 2011
8 a.m. – 4 p.m.
Stetson University College of Law
Tampa Law Center in Tampa, Florida

CLE Information:
Approved for 7.0 total CLE hours including 2.0 hours of ethics with The Florida Bar.

Detection of Deception

- 8:30 a.m. Florida's Rules of Professional Conduct
How using strategic detection of deception and cutting-edge information collection techniques can maximize ethical and effective practice
- 8:45 a.m. Selective Attention Video
– Legal applications
– Behavior assessment video exercise: Part I – Impediments to detecting deception
– Strategic behavior assessment model
- 10:30 a.m. Break
- 10:45 a.m. Deceptive Strategies
– Deceptive verbal behaviors
– Deceptive nonverbal behaviors
– Behavior assessment video exercise: Part II
– Behavioral cautions
– Round up of ethical considerations and questions
- 11:50 a.m. Lunch (On Your Own)

Critical Interviewing

- 12:50 p.m. Live Interview Demonstration
- 1 p.m. Ethics in Interviewing – Interview Preparation and Strategies
- 1:30 p.m. Question Formulation
Including posing questions in court proceedings in a manner that meets the legal standards.
– Question type
– Follow-up questions
– Questions to avoid
- 2:15 p.m. Break
- 2:30 p.m. Question Formulation (continued)
– Question types
– Follow-up questions
– Questions to avoid
- 3 p.m. Demeanor
– Interview logistics
– Concluding the interview
- 3:15 p.m. Legal Application Case Study and Ethical Considerations
- 3:45 p.m. Question and Answer
- 4 p.m. Program Concludes

For more information, visit www.law.stetson.edu/conferences/deception

For more information, visit www.law.stetson.edu/conferences/interviewing