2016 Stetson Law Student Scholarship Application for “Topics in Biodiversity Law: Sea Turtles” Course

This scholarship is funded by a grant awarded from the Sea Turtle Grants Program. The Sea Turtle Grants Program is funded from proceeds from the sale of the Florida Sea Turtle License Plate. Learn more at www.helpingseaturtles.org.

Instructions:
Priority consideration will be given to those who apply by May 31, 2016.

This course will educate law students and graduate students about local, state, national, and international laws and policies that protect sea turtles. This one-credit, three-day course will consider threats to sea turtles, including habitat loss and degradation, incidental take from activities such as shrimping, and direct harvesting. The course will provide students with an understanding of the legal and policy framework designed to respond to these threats.

These $1,400 scholarships are only applicable to the 2016 “Topics in Biodiversity Law: Sea Turtles” Course.
