

Grade Records and Reports

The College of Law maintains a complete record of each student's progress, which includes the grades earned, hours attempted and completed, semester grade averages, and cumulative grade averages. After each grading period, a grade report showing that semester's academic performance is made available to every student via his or her Banner web account.

Administrative policy updated January 16, 2009.