Position: Visiting Assistant Professor of Computer Science

The Department of Mathematics and Computer Science at Stetson University invites applications for a 1 year position as a Visiting Assistant Professor of Computer Science during the Fall 2016/Spring 2017 academic year.

Qualifications: A Ph.D. in Computer Science with evidence of strong teaching skills is required. Candidates with experience and expertise in teaching the introduction courses as well as evidence-based experience in pedagogical development and enhancements will be given the highest consideration.

Responsibilities: The new colleague will be expected to teach four courses per semester. These courses will be assigned in consultation with the department chair based upon enrollment demand, teaching experience, and expertise. The faculty member will be required to hold regular office hours and be involved with regular department activities such as colloquia and department meetings. Service requirements will be minimal. For more information on our expectations in teaching and scholarship, and our support for faculty development, please see the Office of the Provost and Academic Affairs website: http://www.stetson.edu/administration/provost/index.php

The Department: The Department of Mathematics and Computer Science (http://www2.stetson.edu/mathcs/) consists of nine full-time faculty members with areas of expertise across a broad spectrum of applied mathematics, pure mathematics and computer science. We emphasize small classes as well as investigative research in and out of the classroom. Our faculty members are highly engaged teacher-scholars offering Stetson students a unique and vibrant experience in their mathematics/computer science education. There is a good sense of community and collegiality amongst faculty members in the department.

The College of Arts and Sciences: Stetson's College of Arts and Sciences (http://www.stetson.edu/portal/artsci/) is the largest and most diverse of the University's colleges and schools; it includes the humanities, social sciences, natural sciences, education, and creative arts. With nineteen academic departments and eight interdisciplinary programs, the College is the liberal arts core of the University. A great strength of the College is its faculty of approximately 140 full-time teacher-scholars. The College offers 31 undergraduate majors and 34 undergraduate minors; six graduate degrees are offered in Education, Counselor Education, and Creative Writing. Every undergraduate major requires a senior research project, allowing students the opportunity to design and carry out independent research under faculty mentorship. Our academic programs are shaped by the values of social justice and civic responsibility. All of our courses and programs of study promote engaged learning, whereby students create connections between the classroom or lab and the local, regional, and global community. The academic programs of the College of Arts and Sciences prepare students to live significant lives, to interact with and positively affect the world around them.

The University: Founded in 1883, Stetson University (http://www.stetson.edu) is a private, selective university comprised of a rich array of liberal arts and professional academic programs. Collectively, Stetson's faculty works with nearly 4000 students in undergraduate, graduate, and professional programs. The University's historic main campus, located in DeLand, enrolls more than 2,800 students in undergraduate programs in the College of Arts & Sciences, the School of Business Administration, and the School of Music. Stetson University College of Law, Florida's first law school, moved from the main campus to Gulfport in 1954, and, with the addition of the Tampa Law Center, serves approximately 1,000 students working full-time or part-time toward J.D. or LL.M. degrees. Graduate programs offered at the main campus and at Stetson University Center in Celebration include Business, Accounting, Elementary Education – Education for Social Justice, Educational Leadership, Counseling, and Creative Writing. Florida’s oldest private institution of higher learning, Stetson has regularly been ranked among the best regional universities in the Southeast and was the first private college in Florida to be granted a chapter of Phi Beta Kappa.

Stetson University provides an inspiring education that engages students with rigorous academic and creative study grounded in liberal learning and promotes civic values of personal and social responsibility. Working closely with faculty and with one another, students cultivate abilities to explore issues deeply, think critically, reason empirically, speak persuasively, and connect ideas creatively. Firmly committed to inclusive excellence, our vibrant community of teacher-scholars nurtures the potential of individual students to lead lives of significance and prepares each to meet the challenges of shaping the future—locally, nationally, and globally.

THE COMMUNITY:
DeLand is a picturesque residential community of 25,000 located 20 miles west of Daytona Beach and 35 miles northeast of Orlando. The area offers extensive cultural as well as recreational activities.

SALARY: Salary is competitive.

STARTING DATE: August 15, 2016

APPLICATION:
Applicants must send the following materials for consideration: 1) a cover letter that includes the candidate’s philosophy of teaching in a liberal arts university, 2) a curriculum vitae, and 3) three letters of recommendation, at least two of which include an evaluation of teaching ability. Candidates are encouraged to highlight skills and experiences that demonstrate a commitment to social justice, diversity and inclusion.
