Fall 2015 Anticipated Courses

Below are the classes we expect to offer in Fall 2015. The list is subject to change based on faculty availability and student demand. Please note that clinics and internships are excluded from this list, but information regarding those can be obtained at this link: http://www.law.stetson.edu/academics/advocacy/clinics/outlines.php.

Please also make sure to consult the graduation checklist at http://catalog.stetson.edu/law/juris-doctor/ and the course catalog at http://catalog.stetson.edu/courses-instruction/law/ for additional information that may be of assistance as you make your course selections.

Administrative Law. This course is typically offered each Fall and Spring semester, sometimes with more than one section. (meets Administrative Law Requirement)

Admiralty. This course is typically offered once a year.

Adoption Law Seminar. This course is typically offered every year but sometimes every other year. (meets Writing Requirement)

Advanced Civil Trial Skills: Voir Dire (1 credit weekend course). This course is offered once or twice a year.

Advanced Criminal Trial Advocacy. This course is typically offered each Fall and Spring semester.

Advanced Legal Research. This course is typically offered each Fall, Spring, and Summer session. Both “live” and distance-learning versions are typically available, although not always in the same semester.

Advanced Legal Research – International Law. This course is typically offered once a year and is normally via distance learning.

Advanced Legal Writing: Legal Drafting. This course is typically offered once or twice a year.

American Legal History. This course is typically offered once every two years.

Animal Law Seminar. This course is typically offered once or twice a year. (meets Writing Requirement)

Appellate Practice. This course is typically offered each Fall and Spring semester. Two sections are sometimes available. (meets Skills Requirement)

Arbitration. This course is typically offered each Fall, Spring, and Summer session. More than one section is sometimes offered. (meets Skills Requirement)

Bankruptcy Seminar. This course is typically offered once a year. (meets Writing Requirement)

Business Entities. This course is typically offered each Fall and Spring semester. More than one section is sometimes offered.
Circuit Civil Mediation Skills Training. This course is typically offered two or three times a year. We typically offer either the Circuit or the Civil Mediation Skills Training course, but not both. (meets Skills Requirement)

Civil Procedure (3 daytime sections for full-time students). This course is offered each Fall for first-year full-time students and each Spring or Summer (depending on the year) for first-year part-time students.

Commercial Transactions. This course is typically offered every year. (meets Code Requirement)

Constitutional Law I (1 evening section for first-year part-time students). This course is offered each Spring for first-year full-time students and each Fall for second-year part-time students.

Constitutional Litigation. This course is typically offered every other year.

Consumer Protection Law. It has been a while since we offered this course, and we anticipate being able to offer it every other year. (meets Administrative Law Requirement)

Contracts. This course is offered each Fall for first-year full-time and part-time students.

Copyright Law. This course is typically offered once a year.

Criminal Law. This course is offered each Fall for first-year full-time students and each Summer for first-year part-time students

Criminal Procedure. This course is typically offered each Fall and Spring semester. More than one section is often offered.

Cyberlaw Seminar. This course is typically offered once a year. (meets Writing Requirement)

Depositions-Deposing Medical Experts (1 credit weekend course). This course is typically offered two or three times a year.

Elder Law Drafting. This course is typically offered once a year.

Employment Discrimination. This course is typically offered once a year. (meets Administrative Law Requirement)

Employment Law. This course is typically offered once a year.

Environmental Law. This course is typically offered once a year. (meets Administrative Law Requirement)

Evidence. We plan to offer both tethered and untethered sections of Evidence. The tethered section will be offered in the evening. Both the traditional Evidence course and the Evidence course that is tethered with Trial Advocacy are typically offered each Fall and Spring. Although Evidence is a floating requirement that students can take at any point in the elective curriculum, it is highly recommended that students take the course the first semester they are eligible for elective courses, so as to prepare them for a clinic or internship.

Expert Witnesses (1 credit weekend course). This course is typically offered each Fall and Spring semester.

Family Law. This course is typically offered once or twice a year.
Family Law Litigation. This course is typically offered once a year.

Federal Income Taxation I. This course is typically offered each Fall and Spring semester. (meets Code Requirement)

Federal Income Tax II. (Evening) This course is typically offered once a year.

Financial Advocacy (1 credit weekend course). This course is typically offered two or three times a year.

Florida Administrative Law. This course is typically offered once or twice a year. (meets Administrative Law Requirement)

Florida Constitutional Law. This course is typically offered each Fall and Spring semester. We anticipate that the Fall section will be in Gulfport.

Florida Criminal Procedure. This course is typically offered each Fall and Spring semester.

Food Law and Policy Seminar. This course is typically offered once a year. (meets Writing Requirement)

Honors Colloquium. This course is offered once a year, in the Fall semester, for students who have been admitted to the Honors Program. Applications for this program are taken after the first year for full-time students and after the first or second year for part-time students. Students who are eligible to apply will be notified. (meets Writing Requirement)

Human Trafficking. This course is typically offered once a year. (meets Skills Requirement)

Immigration Litigation & Advocacy. This course is typically offered twice a year. (meets Skills Requirement)

Insurance Law. This course is typically offered once a year.

International Banking and Finance. This course is typically offered once a year.

International Business Transactions. This course is typically offered once a year.

International Law. This course is typically offered once or twice a year.

International Sales Law & Arbitration. This course is typically offered once a year. (meets Code Requirement)

Interviewing & Counseling. This course is typically offered each Fall, Spring, and Summer session. More than one section is sometimes available. (meets Skills Requirement)

Introduction to Aging and the Law. This course is typically offered once a year.

Introduction to the Physical Exam (1 credit weekend course). This course is typically offered two or three times a year.

Jurisprudence Seminar. This course is typically offered once a year. (meets Writing Requirement)

Juvenile Law Seminar. This course is typically offered once a year. (meets Writing Requirement)
Land Use Law. This course is typically offered once a year. (meets Administrative Law Requirement)

Law Practice Management. This course is typically offered every Fall and Spring semester.

Multi-State Strategies (distance learning course with a required live weekend). This course is offered each Fall and Spring semester.

Negotiation & Mediation This course is typically offered each Fall, Spring, and Summer session. More than one section is sometimes available. (meets Skills Requirement)

Polishing for Professionals Workshop (1 credit weekend course). This course is typically offered once a year.

Pre-Trial Practice. This course is typically offered each Fall and Spring semester. More than one section is sometimes available. (meets Skills Requirement)

Professional Responsibility (required course for 2nd year part-time students). This course is offered each Fall for second-year students in both the full-time and the part-time program. This class is typically also offered in the Autumn in London program.

Real Property Finance. This course is typically offered once a year.

Remedies. This course is typically offered each Fall and Spring semester. More than one section is sometimes available.

Research & Writing I (daytime sections for first-year full-time students). This course is offered each Fall for first-year full-time students and each Spring for first-year part-time students.

Research & Writing II (Evening sections for second-year part-time students). This course is offered each Spring for first-year full-time students and each Fall for second-year part-time students.

Sales, Leases & Licenses. This course is typically offered each Fall and Spring semester. (meets Code Requirement)

Separation of Powers Seminar. This course is typically offered every other year. (meets Writing Requirement)

Survey of Florida Law. This course is typically offered each Fall and Spring semester.

Technology Issues and the Law. This course is typically offered every other year.

Tort Law & Practice Skills. This course is typically offered once a year. (meets Skills Requirement)

Torts (1 evening section for first-year part-time students). This course is offered each Spring for first-year full-time students and each Fall for first-year part-time students.

Trial Advocacy (multiple sections, daytime and evening, some of which will be tethered to the Evidence course). This course is offered each Fall, Spring, and Summer session, with multiple sections available. Students can take this course independently with Evidence as a prerequisite, or concurrently with the "tethered" Evidence class. (meets Skills Requirement)
Trusts & Estates. (2 sections, daytime and evening) This course is typically offered each Fall and Spring semester.

Wetlands Seminar. This course is typically offered once a year. (meets Writing Requirement)

White Collar Crime. This course is typically offered once a year.

Seminars:

1. Adoption Law Seminar. This course is typically offered every year but sometimes every other year.
2. Animal Law Seminar. This course is typically offered once or twice a year.
3. Bankruptcy Seminar. This course is typically offered once a year.
4. Cyberlaw Seminar. This course is typically offered once a year.
5. Food Law and Policy Seminar. This course is typically offered once a year.
6. Jurisprudence Seminar. This course is typically offered once a year.
7. Juvenile Law Seminar. This course is typically offered once a year.
8. Separation of Powers Seminar. This course is typically offered every other year.
9. Wetlands Seminar. This course is typically offered once a year.

Weekend Courses:

- Advanced Civil Trial Skills-Voir Dire (1 credit). This course is offered once or twice a year.
- Depositions-Deposing Medical Experts (1 credit). This course is typically offered two or three times a year.
- Expert Witnesses (1 credit). This course is typically offered each Fall and Spring semester.
- Financial Advocacy (1 credit). This course is typically offered two or three times a year.
- Introduction to the Physical Exam (1 credit). This course is typically offered two or three times a year.
- Polishing for Professionals Workshop (1 credit). This course is typically offered once a year.