Stetson University Choral Union Attire

Rehearsals: Attire for Choral Union rehearsals, including dress rehearsals, is casual.

Concert Attire for males

Men are required to wear a black tuxedo (dinner jacket), black socks, and black dress shoes. Those in Stetson University Concert Choir or Stetson Men may wear their choir’s uniform tuxedo for Choral Union performances.

Concert Attire for females

Dress/Trousers & Blouse/ Skirt & Blouse: You may wear a dress, or a skirt or trousers with a blouse or top. Whatever you choose, it must be entirely black and extend to your ankles. Long sleeves are preferred but short sleeves are acceptable. Sleeveless garments or spaghetti straps are NOT acceptable.

Plain and Unadorned Style: Your attire must be plain and entirely black. No sheer fabrics, embroidery, beading, or cutouts on any clothing. No exposed midriffs.

Non-Reflective Fabric: No lace, chiffon, metallic, or satin fabric anywhere on your attire, including trim and ornamentation.

Skirts: Must be entirely black, straight or slightly flared. A slit up the side or back, no higher than the knee, is acceptable.

Trousers: Must be entirely black and should be tailored or knit. No jeans, cargo pants, denim, low-waisted, casual, or khaki-style trousers.

Necklines: Showing any cleavage whatsoever is not allowed.

Shoes and Belts: Must be completely black. No non-black buckles or adornments. Shoes should be closed toed with flat to medium heeled and have a back or a back strap. No sandals, flip flops, or athletic shoes.

Black Stockings or Socks: Whether you elect to wear a dress, skirt, or trousers, you must wear black stockings or trouser socks. Sheer black or opaque are acceptable. Bare legs or skin-tone stockings are not acceptable. It doesn’t matter which row you stand in or how long your trousers or skirt are. No exceptions.

Jewelry: Nothing flashy. You may wear earrings with up to a 1” drop or stud-style earrings of up to 1” in diameter that sit on the earlobe. A dress watch may be worn. Rings should be limited to one on each hand. A wedding and engagement ring set count as one ring.

Headbands and Hair Clips: Hair holding devices must be black and plain. No ornamentation whatsoever, including feathers, rhinestones, sequins, etc. Hair must not be allowed to fall across the face.
All Choral Union members must obtain appropriate performance attire for the concerts. Singers may purchase or borrow any assigned clothing items they don’t already have. If you have any questions, please contact our choir manager, Donna King, at King.DonnaJ@gmail.com.
