POSITION: Visiting Assistant Professor of Counselor Education

Stetson University’s Department of Counselor Education invites applications for a Visiting Assistant Professor. This is a full-time, non-tenure-track position.

QUALIFICATIONS:
Applicants must hold a Ph.D. in Counselor Education (CACREP-accredited), Counseling, or Counseling Psychology. Successful candidates must be qualified to teach core counseling courses as well as courses in the specialty area of school counseling. Experience as a school counselor (or equivalent) is preferred.

RESPONSIBILITIES:
We are seeking energetic and self-aware candidates who share our commitment to prepare highly qualified counseling professionals. Primary responsibilities for the new colleague include teaching four graduate counseling courses per semester.

THE DEPARTMENT:
The Counselor Education department consists of five faculty members. Please visit the department website for more information on our program, http://www.stetson.edu/artsci/counselor/

THE UNIVERSITY:
Founded in 1883, Stetson University (http://www.stetson.edu) is a private, selective university comprised of a rich array of liberal arts and professional academic programs. Collectively, Stetson’s faculty works with nearly 4000 students in undergraduate, graduate, and professional programs. The University’s historic main campus, located in DeLand, enrolls more than 2,800 students in undergraduate programs in the College of Arts & Sciences, the School of Business Administration, and the School of Music. Stetson University College of Law, Florida’s first law school, moved from the main campus to Gulfport in 1945, and, with the addition of the Tampa Law Center, serves approximately 1,000 students working full-time or part-time toward J.D. or LL.M. degrees. Graduate programs offered at the main campus and at Stetson University Center in Celebration include Business, Accounting, Educational Leadership, Elementary Education – Education for Social Justice, and Counseling. Florida’s oldest private institution of higher learning, Stetson has regularly been ranked among the best regional universities in the Southeast and was the first private college in Florida to be granted a chapter of Phi Beta Kappa.

Stetson University provides an inspiring education that engages students with rigorous academic and creative study grounded in liberal learning and promotes civic values of personal and social responsibility. Working closely with faculty and with one another, students cultivate abilities to explore issues deeply, think critically, reason empirically, speak persuasively, and connect ideas creatively. Firmly committed to inclusive excellence, our vibrant community of teacher-scholars nurtures the potential of individual students to lead lives of significance and prepares each to meet the challenges of shaping the future—locally, nationally, and globally.

THE COMMUNITY:
DeLand is a picturesque residential community of 25,000 located 20 miles west of Daytona Beach and 35 miles northeast of Orlando. The area offers extensive cultural as well as recreational activities.

SALARY: Salary is competitive.
STARTING DATE: August 15, 2015

APPLICATION:
Applicants must send the following materials for consideration: 1) a cover letter that includes the candidate’s philosophy of teaching in a liberal arts university, 2) a curriculum vitae, 3) transcripts (copies are acceptable for screening), 4) three letters of recommendation, at least one of which should include an evaluation of teaching ability. Candidates are encouraged to highlight skills and experiences that demonstrate a commitment to social justice, diversity and inclusion. Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled.
