BEST TEAM

Our Service

Stetson's Bias Education and Support Team provides students with an opportunity to receive education, support, and resolution in response to perceived biases. Our goal is to empower students to find resolutions on their own, to provide support and education when needed, to foster personal and intellectual development, and to promote resiliency.

The BEST process is not punitive. Instead, BEST provides all students with opportunities to be heard and supported and creates space to process, gain understanding, and make a plan to resolve a situation.

REPORT IT FORM

Our Service

If You See Something, Say Something

The Stetson Report It form is a way to inform the staff of the university of anything suspicious, dangerous or concerning. There are a variety of circumstances that may warrant reporting whether it be a mysterious stranger around your residence hall, a case of academic dishonesty, concern for a friend in a toxic relationship, and more.

There are a variety of ways to report an incident. Some avenues are more disciplinary and others are support or education based.

If you're not sure who a report should go to, simply file a general Report It form, and Stetson staff will determine the best course of action.
