

March 29-April 4

Top Stories

- In an article on teams that beat FGCU in basketball, the New York Times lists Stetson as one of those victors and quotes Stetson Coach Casey Alexander.
- Law professor Ellen Podgor is profiled in the April 2 New York Times White Collar Watch article, "Women Lead the Way in White-Collar Law."
- Law professor Peter Lake is quoted in the March 28 Bloomberg article, "Frats Worse than Animal House Fail to Pay for Casualties." The article ran nationally in dozens of outlets.
- Stetson was mentioned in a major league baseball story that said Chipper Jones had not picked up a baseball since throwing out the first pitch to start Stetsons season. The article ran on the websites of many MLB teams.
- Law professor Luz Nagle is also quoted in the March 28 ABA Journal article, "Slavery continues to haunt the modern world, but efforts to eradicate it are growing."
- Stetsons victory over FGCU was mentioned in a March 28 article on SBNation.com in relation to FGCU's chances to advance past the sweet 16 at the NCAA championship. Additional coverage: KFOX TV, WOKV FM, WSOC TV, WTOV TV, WFTV. The Dalton Daily Citizen also ran an article on FGCU which included a mention of Stetsons victory over that team. Additional coverage: El Informador.
- Law professor Kate Bohl is quoted in the April 3 Herald Tribune article, "State abuse law passed after Penn State applies in Frazier case."
- Law professor Ciara Torres-Spelliscy is quoted in the April 4 Center for Public Integrity article, "Governors group rely increasingly on 'dark money affiliates.'"
- Law professor Roberta Flowers appeared on Bay News 9 on April 3 discussing drug sentencing disparities.
- In a follow-up article on coaches salaries, USA Today referenced an article and research published in the Journal of Issues in Intercollegiate Athletics co-written by Matt Wilson, director of the Sport Management Program at Stetson. The original article in USA Today did mention Stetson and the research authors by name.

Other Stories in the News

- Former Stetson basketball coach Glenn Wilkes discussed Stetson mens and womens basketball, coaching staff, and other topics in an interview with the Daytona Beach News-Journal on March 28, and a companion piece in the same paper.
- The Gulfport Patch ran an article on April 2 about Stetson University College of Law students Paul Crochet, Meagan Foley and Alexander Zesch all receiving Honorable Mention Best Oral Advocate Awards at the Willem C. Vis International Commercial Arbitration Moot in Vienna, Austria. The Stetson team was one of only two U.S. law schools to advance to finish in the quarterfinals of the competition.
- Stetson was mentioned in an April 3 article in the Leaf-Chronicle regarding Dave Loos stepping down as athletic director at Austin Peay after 16 years. Loos will maintain his duties as head basketball coach. Additional coverage: Daily News Journal, The Tennessean, Asheville Citizen-Times.
- In an article on art and museums in Central Florida, the Orlando Sentinel mentioned Stetson as a venue for museum-caliber art.
- For an in-depth look at Pope Francis' impact on Christians and the values of charity, social justice and living modestly, the Daytona Beach News-Journal interviewed Greg Sapp, associate professor of religious studies. Sapp also was quoted in a March 31 Daytona Beach News-Journal article on Pope Francis. Additional coverage: Florida Higher Education Spectator.

- The Florida Bar News ran an article on April 1 about Stetsons Black Law Students Association being named Chapter of the Year for the southern region for community activism.
- Law professor Kirsten Davis is featured in the Monroe County Beacon article, "Monroe County Native Spearheads Stetsons First Law and Rhetoric Colloquium."
- A Florida Times Union article on March 31 lists Wendy B. Libby as a speaker at the Womens Leadership Conference on April 5.
- Mark Powell was mentioned in an April 3 article in the Mountaineer News for his participation in Western Carolina Universitys Spring Literary Festival.
- Itso Belichovski, was mentioned in a Daytona Beach News-Journal article on April 3 highlighting the dangers and misconceptions of smoking hookah.

Alumni in the News

- Bill Newsome is mentioned in a New York Times article as one of two lead researchers on a new project intended to record and map brain circuits in action to show how millions of brain cells interact. The project received wide attention due to support from the Obama administration. Additional coverage: NBC News, WhiteHouse.gov, USNews.com, The Guardian (UK), and hundreds of other media outlets, and health and education websites.
- Law alumna and Florida Attorney General Pam Bondi, is featured in the News 4 Jax article, "5 questions for Pam Bondi."
- The Daytona Beach News-Journal March 31 article on Chris Johnson, Atlanta Braves third baseman, featured Stetson prominently.
- Alumnus and Judge of Compensation Claims Ray Holley is featured in the April 1 Jacksonville Daily Record.
- In a retrospective of the 2003 MLB draft, BleacherReport.com mentions Brian Snyder who played his last game in 2008 as member of the San Diego Padres system.
- According to the April 2 Crestview News Bulletin, Law alumna Lori Baggett was recently elected as a Shareholder of Carlton Fields and was also chosen to be a member of the 2013 class of fellows.
- Melissa Pilgrim was highlighted in an UpstateBizSC article on April 1 for being named the director of research at the University of South Carolina Upstate. Additional coverage: GSA Business.

March 23-28

Top Stories

- A USA Today article on March 22 says NCAA tournament-caliber schools outside the elite conferences are increasing their men's basketball head coaches' pay and potential bonuses at a faster rate than those in the elite conferences. The article is based on research by Matt Wilson, director of Stetson's sport management program, and Kevin L. Burke, dean and a professor at Queens University of Charlotte's Blair College of Health. The research is published in the Journal of Issues in Intercollegiate Athletics.
- An article in Sports Illustrated on March 22 says the Stetson v UCLA (womens) basketball game may be a stepping stone to a match-up between the Bruins and Sooners during the NCAA March Madness. More than a dozen other media outlets throughout the country picked up with story.
- Although FGCU beat Stetson to go to the NCAA basketball championship, Stetson is receiving decent national coverage as the last team to beat the Eagles, as evidenced by this ESPN.com article which says "Stetson" four times in three sentences.

- Law Dean Emeritus and Professor Bruce Jacob is profiled in the March 22 Esquire magazine article, "The Lawyer Who Won By Losing," regarding his work on the famous Gideon v. Wainwright case.
- Law Professor Luz Nagle is quoted in the Christian Science Monitor article, "Amanda Knox retrial: a tale of two countries' legal systems." The story was also picked up nationally by media including the Alaska Dispatch, Palm Beach Times and FindLaw Legal Pro News. Professor Nagle is also quoted in the April 1, 2013, ABA Journal article, "Slavery continues to haunt the modern world, but efforts to eradicate it are growing."
- Law Professor Peter Lake is quoted in the Chronicle of Higher Education story, "Efficiency and Academic Freedom Clash in a Fight at CUNY." Lake is also quoted in a Bloomberg article about fraternities, "Frats Worse than Animal House Fail to Pay for Casualties."
- Law Adjunct Professor Richard Harrison is quoted in the Tampa Tribune story, "Utility bill flier on St. Pete pier rankles opponents." The story was picked up by the Chicago Tribune and Baltimore Sun. Harrison is also quoted in the March 25 Lakeland Ledger and News Chief.
- Law Associate Dean Michael Allen did an interview with Spanish-speaking newspaper El Diario La Prensa about the Supreme Court hearing cases concerning gay marriage.

Other Stories in the News

- MSNMoney.com mentioned Stetson in an article on Atlantic Sun Conference schools that could potentially profit from FGCU's participation in the NCAA championship basketball tournament.
- CollegelInsider.com recently named Stetson head (mens) basketball coach Casey Alexander the Atlantic-Sun Conference Coach of the Year for 2012-13. A March 22 article in The Tennessean says Alexander led Stetson to a 15-16 record and third place in the Atlantic Sun conference, where the team reached the league tournament semifinals for the first time since 2006. Additional coverage: Courier-Journal, Chillicothe Gazette.
- An article in Hometown News on March 22, about the Heritage Inn in Orange City mentions that in the 1930s Stetson students were threatened with expulsion if they frequented the hotel's bar, the Rainbow Room.
- The March issue of National Jurist magazine is running news about Stetson University launching a new online LL.M. in advocacy and an online Journal of Advocacy and the Law.
- The March 24 Erie Times News mentions Law student Andona Zacks-Jordan, a member of the award-winning AAJ Regional Mock Trial Championship team.
- The March 22 Wills, Trusts and Estates Prof Blog mentions Stetson Law professor Rebecca Morgan co-authored the article, "Standards for Financial Decision-Making: Legal, Ethical, and Practical Issues."
- The March 26 WGAL TV, "8 on Your Side" referenced information from Stetson Law warning consumers of scams involving Medicare.

Alumni in the News

- Ex-LPGA golfer, Stetson Law alumna Jane Geddes is featured in Newsday discussing her work for the WWE.
- The March 27 Chattanooga Times Free Press reports that Stetson Law alumna Anna Adams is being considered for a magistrate post by the Hamilton County Commission.
- America's First Federal Credit Union, Birmingham, Ala., has appointed Audra Weber as the new vice president of human resources and training, according to Credit Union Times on March 26.

- According to Marconews.com, Iberiabank has promoted Keith Dameron to vice president of business development for Collier County. Additional coverage: Naples Daily News.
- According to the March 23 Tampa Bay Times, Law alumna Lori Baggett has been chosen to be a member of the 2013 class of Fellows participating in a Leadership Council on Legal Diversity program. Law alumni Kristi Neher Davisson has been named a partner and John M. Stratton has joined the firm Anthony and Partners, Tampa, as an associate.

March 16-22

Top Story News

- An Associated Press article on March 21 about the 63 upcoming NCAA womens basketball tournament games (including Stetson v UCLA) appeared in several national media outlets including: NPR.org, ABC News, Huffington Post, Sports-Illustrated, Atlanta Journal-Constitution, Houston Chronicle, Seattle Post-Intelligencer, and more than 100 other media outlets throughout the country.
- Dean Emeritus and Professor of Law Bruce Jacobs role in the historic Gideon v. Wainwright case is featured in the March 18 NBC News article, "A 'nobodys legacy: How a semi-literate ex-con changed the legal system." The story also ran in MSN News Canada. Jacob also appeared on the Saturday, March 16, CBS This Morning special "Gideon v. Wainwright: case providing defendants an attorney - turns 50."
- Stetson fans were invited to watch the NCAA women's basketball selection show Monday night with the Hatters at a viewing party at Bill & Frank's Brickhouse Grill on N. Woodland Boulevard according to the Daytona Beach News-Journal. Additional coverage of the Hatters trip to the NCAA included WKCF-TV, WESH-TV, WFTV-TV, Orlando Sentinel, Long Beach Press-Telegram, Los Angeles Daily News, and dozens of other media outlets.
- The second of two public forums on community safety hosted by Stetson - this one on mental health and violence in schools - was covered by the Daytona Beach News-Journal on March 20.
- Stetson was in the Daytona Beach News-Journal on March 15 for hosting former U.S. Sen. Bob Graham as he addressed the 42nd Floyd M. Riddick Model Senate. Additional coverage: Florida Higher Education Spectator.
- Law professor Robert Batey is quoted in the March 15 St. Augustine Record article, "Analysis: Internet café money benefited elected leaders." Batey is also quoted in the Aberdeen News, American News and South Bend Tribune story, "Key members of Allied Veterans operation gave $100,000-plus to state, local candidates."

Other News

- Florida Higher Education Spectator picked up Stetson Today's article on March 19 regarding the Finance Department in the School of Business Administration hosting a Roberson Executive Lecturer, Gary Starkweather, who will be speaking at the DeLand campus on March 21. Starkweather is well known for inventing the laser printer.
- Law professor Judith Scully participated in The Tampa Racial Equity Coalitions panel discussion, "Understanding the School to Prison Pipeline," according to the March 17 Examiner.
- Stetson football was briefly mentioned in a March 20 Daytona Beach News-Journal article on changes to Earl Brown Park.
- Law adjunct professor Richard A. Harrison is quoted in the March 21 Tampa Tribune article, "Utility bill flier on St. Pete pier rankles opponents."
- Stetson was mentioned in the Daytona Beach News Journal on March 18 about the possibility of making the campus smoke-free.

- Hometown News reported that Stetson is one of several Central Florida universities eligible to participate in the ERAU Innovation Challenge. The event will be at Embry Riddle Aeronautical University's Daytona Beach campus on April 19. The goal of the challenge is to promote the commercialization of innovations spawned by local students.
- According to the Legal Ease column in the Mercury and Sanatoga Post, Stetsons Elder Consumer Protection Program warns of a new Medicare scam.
- Stetson students living off campus was part of a Tampa Bay Times March 16 article on changes in the community of Gulfport after a mayoral election.
- A Hometown News article on March 15 included a brief mention of the demolition of Stover Theater last year.
- The April 2013 Reason.com quotes Supreme Court Justice Clarence Thomas remarks at Stetson University College of Law in the story, "A History Lesson from Clarence Thomas."

Alumni News

- J. Barry Griswell, CEO of the Community Foundation of Greater Des Moines, was featured in the Des Moines Business Record because of his philanthropy in his community.
- Nefertiti Walker, an assistant professor in the sports management department at the University of Massachusetts Amherst, and also a former basketball player at Stetson University, was quoted in an ESPN.com article regarding basketball player Brittney Griner and gender stereotypes in sports.
- Cartha Dekle DeLoach was featured in a March 15 New York Times article. DeLoach was the former head of investigations for the FBI tasked with investigating the Ku Klux Klan and the murder of Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. DeLoach died on March 13 on Hilton Head Island, S.C., at age 92. Additional coverage: Pittsburgh Post-Gazette.
- Scott Rasmus was mentioned in the Middletown Journal, Oxford Press, and Journal News on March 19 as the new executive director of the Butler County Mental Health Board.
- Law alumnus Michael Andrew was named vice president and general counsel for Carlson Rezidor Hotel Group, according to Hotel News Resource.
- Law alumna Vicki Bowers is featured in the March 18 Lawyer Snapshot of the Financial News & Daily Record.

March 9-15, 2013

Top Stories

- Stetsons status as a Presidential Award Finalist in the 2013 Presidents Higher Education Community Service Honor Roll received coverage on March 14 in the Daytona Beach News Journal. Stetson is one of only 14 universities to receive this award. Additional coverage includes: West Volusia Beacon, Daytona Times, WCBI news in Mississippi and Florida Higher Education Spectator.
- Coverage of Stetsons first forum in response to the shootings in Newtown, Conn., last December appeared in the Daytona Beach News-Journal on March 12.
- Stetson is included in a March 11 CNN.com article on "come-back" towns - small towns that have revived their downtown areas. Additional coverage includes: clickOrlando.com, KTXS in Texas, KTVM in Montana, and a dozen other news outlets throughout the country.
- Law Dean Emeritus and Professor Bruce Jacob is quoted in the Atlantic article, "So You Want to Learn More about the Gideon Case?" Jacob is profiled in the March 2013 St. Petersburg Bar Paraclete article, "50 Years After Gideon?"

- Former U.S. Sen. Bob Graham, also a former Florida governor, will speak to students and the public about civic engagement at an event at Stetson, according to a Daytona Beach News-Journal article March 10. He is speaking as part of the 42 Annual Floyd M. Riddick Model United States Senate.
- Stetson students and sand volleyball players were quoted in a Bay News 9 article on the sport. The article states that Cocoa Beach city leaders are hoping to make the city a destination for college sand volleyball competitions. Additional coverage can be found on Central Florida News 13.
- Professor Luz Nagle is mentioned in the March 14 Texas Bar Journal article, "Looking Beyond Our Borders."
- Stephen Day, assistant professor of political science, is quoted in an article on ForeignPolicy.com regarding Yemen.

Other Stories in the News

- Stetson was mentioned in a Central Florida News 13 article on March 8 regarding a Georgetown University study that shows students with associates degrees can make more than students with bachelors degrees. Additional coverage includes Bay News 9.
- Fox 13 News ran a story about Stetson Laws Wills for Veterans program, March 7 on the Gulfport campus.
- According to the March 11 Immigration Prof Blog, students from Stetson Law and other law schools will spend spring break conducting Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals clinics in Naples, Tampa, Gainesville, and Orlando, Florida.
- A March 14 Crains Chicago Business story mentions Stetson Laws U.S. News ranking in a story comparing colleges across the country.
- The Associated Baptist Press noted in a March 8 article that a group of Stetson students is helping to rehab hundreds of homes damaged by Hurricane Isaac last August.
- Florida Higher Education Spectator picked up a story from StetsonToday about a March 13 lecture on the Oscar Bluemner art exhibition currently on display at Stetsons Hand Art Center.
- Stetson was mentioned in a March 15 Daytona Beach News-Journal article about boosting the economy in west Volusia County.
- On March 8, the Florida Times Union publicized the Stetson University Concert Choir Spring Tour.
- Stetson student Lauren Davis is a finalist for classical voice at the 10th Anniversary Young Artists Awards Gala in southwest Florida, according to News-Press.com. The students are competing for scholarships.
- On March 9, the West Volusia Beacon reported Stetsons School of Music will honor the memory of the late Paul Langston, former music dean, with a recital on March 15 in Lee Chapel.
- On March 13, the West Volusia Beacon provided coverage of Stetsons upcoming first annual French Film Festival, to be held March 20-April 10. Additional coverage: Daytona Beach News-Journal, Florida Higher Education Spectator.

Alumni in the News

- Jack W. Jones is retiring from the Royal Poinciana Chapel after nearly 25 years as organist and director of music according to the March 9 Palm Beach Daily News.
- The March 11 Tampa Bay Business Journal reports that memorial services for Stetson Law alumnus and Hall of Fame inductee Fred Karl will be moved to the convention center. The March 10 Morning Show on WJXT, WOKV FM, St. Augustine Record, Bay News 9, WBBH, WEAR TV, WOFL, Tampa Tribune, WUSF, Central Florida News 13,

- WFTV and Daytona Beach News Journal, Bradenton Herald, and dozens of national media ran news of Karls death.
- According to the Florida Times-Union, Thelma Pacetti passed away at age 105. She taught thousands of students in St. Johns County during her 46-year career which began in 1926. Additional coverage includes the St. Augustine Record.
 - Law LL.M. alumnus Alexandre Dammous started MobAdWin, a Tampa Bay-based mobile app for subscribers and advertisers offered exclusively to iOS and Android users, according to the March 13 Daily News Los Angeles.
 - The March 8 Tampa Bay Business Journal ran a profile about Law alumnus David Doney.
 - The March 7 News-Press ran an article about Law alumna Cheryl Payne of Quarles & Brady.
 - The March 8 Tampa Bay Times mentions Law alumnus Eric Lamontagne in the article, "For fun and low-impact fitness check out rowing."
 - The March 8 Thomson Reuters Legal News mentions Law alumna Karen Morinelli, a new lawyer at Tampa firm Ogletree Deakins.
 - According to the March 13 ASTD, Law alumnus Tony DeSisto, co-founder and managing director of Citizeninvestor, is coordinating a webinar on "Best Practices for Citizen Engagement Initiatives" on June 18.
 - According to the March 11 Herald Tribune, Law alumnus Brett Henson has joined Dickinson and Gibbons P.A. in Sarasota as an associate.

March 2-8, 2013

Top Stories

- Coverage of an active shooter training exercise on Stetsons DeLand campus appeared in the Daytona Beach News-Journal on March 7. The "incident" included training for DeLand Police Department, DeLand Fire Department and Stetson University Emergency Management Team.
- A Daytona Beach News-Journal article on March 1 quoted retired Army Lt. Col. Oakland McCullough, who runs the ROTC program at Stetson University, as saying that tuition costs are a major factor in students signing up for ROTC. The article goes on to say that, the changing military climate is making it tougher for students to get those scholarships.
- On March 4, the Daytona Beach News-Journal provided information on Stetsons TED-x event slated for March 15. TED is a nonprofit organization (Technology, Entertainment and Design) formed to disseminate "ideas worth spreading."
- On March 6, the Daytona Beach News-Journal provided coverage of two forums Stetson is organizing to find ways to prevent school shootings like the one in Newtown, Conn.
- Law dean emeritus and professor Bruce Jacob is quoted in the March 2 TheLedger.com article, "Eye on Polk: Grand Jurys Report on LPD Remains Sealed"
- A March 8 article in the Daytona Beach News-Journal on "flipped" classrooms quoted Chris Colwell, Stetson director of undergraduate teacher education.
- Law professor Luz Nagle is quoted in the March 4 Tampa Bay Times article, "Man pleads guilty in Pinellas human trafficking case." The article also ran in the Ledger and the News-Chief.
- According to the March 2 BriefingWire.com, Law student Conner Kempe will likely win the Ocean Conservancy photography contest. His photo, entitled "Edge-n-Pop," currently has the most votes in the contest, the proceeds of which will support the Ocean Conservancys mission to protect and preserve marine wildlife.
- Students at Stetson are assisting the city of New Smyrna Beach with a Community Redevelopment Agency project. The students will canvass part of U.S. 1, in part to ask every business and property owner there what the city could do to help them stay. The students' research will be included as part of a blight study according to a March 5 Daytona Beach News-Journal article.

Other Stories in the News

- The Feb. 28 Ledger mentions Stetsons human trafficking forum at the Tampa Law Center in the article, "Trafficking Children For Sex Is Real and It Is Right Here, Forum Told."
- Stetson was mentioned in an Orlando Sentinel article on March 8 regarding alternative spring break trips in which students participate in community service projects.
- On March 5, Jacksonville.com, the online Florida Times-Union, publicized the upcoming Spring Concert Choir Tour scheduled for Friday, March 8. Other coverage of the choirs tour included: Savannah Morning News.
- The March 2 Good Stories to Read Online Blog mentions Law Professor Ellen Podgors participation in a panel on the American justice system for the Federalist Society.
- A Career Fair on the Stetson campus at Celebration was covered by WESH-2 News. Additional coverage included CW18.
- Florida Higher Education Spectator included coverage of Stetsons designation as a Tree Campus USA.
- On March 5, the West Volusia Beacon provided coverage of Stetsons CASE Awards. Additional coverage: NAC&U News & Notes.
- Stetson Law is mentioned in the March 1 Orlando Sentinel article, "Law schools see sharp decline in applications." The story also ran in the Baltimore Sun, Daily Press, and Sun-Sentinel.
- The Feb. 28 Virtual Strategy Magazine mentions that attorney Patrick Roberts attended the White Collar Criminal Defense College at Stetson.
- The March 4 Florida Trend article "Florida Utilities: Death of the Buyout Clause," references an article written by Thomas A. Cloud, an attorney with GrayRobinson in Orlando, in the 2006 Stetson Law Review.
- According to the Feb. 26 Above the Law, 36 out of the 147 schools profiled in the ATL Career Center are rated higher by their alumni than by current students. Stetson is among the five schools that show the highest uptick in alumni perception.
- According to the Feb. 22 States News Service, William LaForge, who has an honorary doctor of laws from Stetson University, has been named as the preferred candidate for the presidency of Delta State University.
- Kate Pearce, Stetson University director of gift planning, was elected vice-chair of the Duvall Home Board of Regents according to the March 7 Daytona Beach News-Journal.
- According to the Clermont News Leader, the City of Tavares Art in the Square reception will feature the artwork of acclaimed Florida artist and 1917 Stetson graduate, Catherine Haynes Stockwell, on Monday, March 11. Stockwell is well known for her paintings of Florida which preserve the look of the landscape prior to development. It is estimated that she produced more than 5,000 paintings in her lifetime.

Alumni in the News

- Orlando's professional soccer team, the Orlando City, announced they have signed midfielder Jonathan Mendoza, a graduate of Stetson, according to Soccer Scene USA. Mendoza was the 2011 Atlantic Sun Conference Player of the Year.
- Alumnus Chris Johnson continues to provide publicity for Stetson as he seeks to replace Chipper Jones at third base for the Atlanta Braves, according to Atlantas local CBS station.
- According to the March 7 Tampa Bay Times, Law alumnus and Hall of Fame inductee, former Florida Supreme Court justice Fred Karl has died. Additional coverage includes Tampa Tribune, Bay News 9, CFNews13.

- Law alumni Judge Diana Moreland and Judge Frederick P. Mercurio participated in the Manasota Trial Lawyers Board February Meeting to discuss courtroom skills and conduct, according to the Feb. 28 WooEb News.
- According to the March 1 Orlando Sentinel and South Florida Sun Sentinel, Law alumna Joy Goff-Marcil is running for Seat 3 on the Maitland City Council.
- According to the March 6 PRWeb, Law alumnus and Morgan & Morgan attorney Grant Kivin obtained a $1,017,000 verdict in a medical malpractice case.
- The March 2 Gay News Headlines describes Law alumnus Robert Popes struggle for equality.
- Law alumna Karen M. Morinelli has joined the Jackson Lewis LLP Tampa office, which opened in early 2013, as partner.