

Jeff Allebach

Jeff is an Independent Financial Advisor representing Capital Choice with his office in Orange City Florida. He promotes education based solutions to middle income investors, helping clients protect income, pay off debt and prepare for a dignified retirement.

Jeff is also the CFO for Covalent Scientific Industries. The company services analytical instruments prevalent in the laboratories of flavor and fragrance companies.

On top of his business pursuits Jeff is also serving his community in number of ways. The first is as a City Council Member for the City of Orange City. He has served in that role for 14 of the last 20 years. Next Jeff serves as the President of the Orange City Blue Spring Manatee Festival, an organization raising both environmental awareness and funds for the community. He is going on his 23rd year as leader of this civic organization.

Jeff grew up in the west Volusia area attending DeLand High School, 1984, then Stetson University, BA Political Science 1988. Then went on to earn an MBA, University of Miami, 2007.

Jeff been married to Karen since October 6th, 1990 and has one daughter, Melissa. He also serves on the Advent Health Fish Memorial Foundation board, River to Sea TPO and is a mentor with Catalyst.