

Assistant or Associate Professor of Music (Conducting) and Director of Bands Stetson University School of Music

The Stetson University School of Music seeks a tenure-track Director of Bands, at the rank of Assistant or Associate Professor. This is a full-time, 9-month position that begins in August 2024.

QUALIFICATIONS

The successful candidate will have a proven record of conducting excellence, outstanding musicianship, substantial conducting experience with university-level/collegiate bands or commensurate professional experience, and demonstrated success with recruiting, retaining, and mentoring undergraduate musicians from diverse backgrounds. We are especially interested in candidates who have a strong commitment to all aspects of inclusivity in our learning-centered community. A completed doctoral degree is required.

RESPONSIBILITIES

The position will involve conducting Stetson's Symphonic Band and other ensembles, to be determined at the conclusion of the search process. Additional teaching will include undergraduate courses (at introductory, intermediate and advanced levels) based on the candidate's expertise and the needs of the School of Music. The Director of Bands will also be responsible for coordinating Stetson's Jazz Ensemble as well as Hatter and Pep Bands. Further responsibilities will encompass participation in all aspects of recruitment of new students; close collaboration with coordinators of applied areas, conductors of orchestras and choirs, and the director of the Music Education program; and leadership in planning and executing the concert calendar. Academic advising, mentoring and assisting music students in developing professional goals beyond Stetson, and providing service to the university community are also expected. (For more information on Stetson's expectations in teaching, scholarship/creative activity, and service, as well as tenure policies and support for faculty development, please see the Office of the Provost and Academic Affairs website: <http://www.stetson.edu/administration/provost>.)

THE SCHOOL OF MUSIC

Stetson's School of Music (<http://www.stetson.edu/music>) is an undergraduate-only program known for its excellence, depth, and long-standing reputation for the quality of its education. The school offers BM, BME, and BA degrees, with majors in performance, music education, music theory, composition, and outside-field areas. A faculty of 46 serves approximately 225 music majors and minors. The school has its own dean and holds full membership in the National Association of Schools of Music. Recent graduates of the School of Music are found on the stages of the world's great opera houses (including the Metropolitan Opera, La Scala, and Covent Garden), hold leadership positions in major symphony orchestras, serve as faculty members of the most prestigious colleges and universities throughout the nation, and matriculate in distinguished graduate programs in the United States and Europe. The School of Music is proud of the consistent placement of its BME graduates as teachers in K-12 school music education programs in Florida and throughout the nation.

THE UNIVERSITY

Founded in 1883, Stetson University (<http://www.stetson.edu>) is a private, selective university comprised of a rich array of liberal arts and professional academic programs. Collectively, Stetson's faculty works with nearly 3,700 students in undergraduate, graduate, and professional programs. The University's historic main campus, located in DeLand, enrolls more than 2,300 students in undergraduate programs in the College of Arts & Sciences, the School of Business Administration, and the School of Music. Stetson University College of Law, Florida's first law school, moved from the main campus to Gulfport in 1954, and, with the addition of the Tampa Law Center, serves approximately 1,000 students working full-time or part-time toward J.D. or LL.M. degrees. Graduate programs offered include Business, Accounting, Educational Leadership, Counseling, and Creative Writing. Florida's oldest private institution of higher learning, Stetson has regularly been ranked among the best regional universities in the Southeast and was the first private college in Florida to be granted a chapter of Phi Beta Kappa.

Stetson University provides an inspiring education that engages students with rigorous academic and creative study grounded in liberal learning and promotes civic values of personal and social responsibility. Working closely with faculty and with one another, students cultivate abilities to explore issues deeply, think critically, reason empirically, speak persuasively, and connect ideas creatively. Firmly committed to inclusive excellence, our vibrant community of teacher-scholars nurtures the potential of individual students to lead lives of significance and prepares each to meet the challenges of shaping the future—locally, nationally, and globally.

THE COMMUNITY

DeLand is a picturesque residential community of 38,000 located 20 miles west of Daytona Beach and 35 miles northeast of Orlando. The area offers extensive cultural as well as recreational activities.
