A Note about CIRP Constructs

We use the CIRP Constructs throughout this PowerPoint to help summarize important information about your students from the YFCY.

Constructs

Constructs statistically aggregate the results from CIRP questions that tap into key aspects of the college experience. They focus on student traits and institutional practices contributing to students' academic and social development.

Longitudinal Constructs

Constructs that are included in the CIRP TFS and YFCY that measure change in your student population over time.

Financing College

The percentage of students with at least some funds from these various sources.

Do you have any concern about your ability to finance your college education?

Adjustment to College

Students' ability to adjust academically and socially plays a large role in student success, retention, and satisfaction.

Academic Adjustment

Academic Adjustment measures the ease with which students adjust to the academic demands of college.

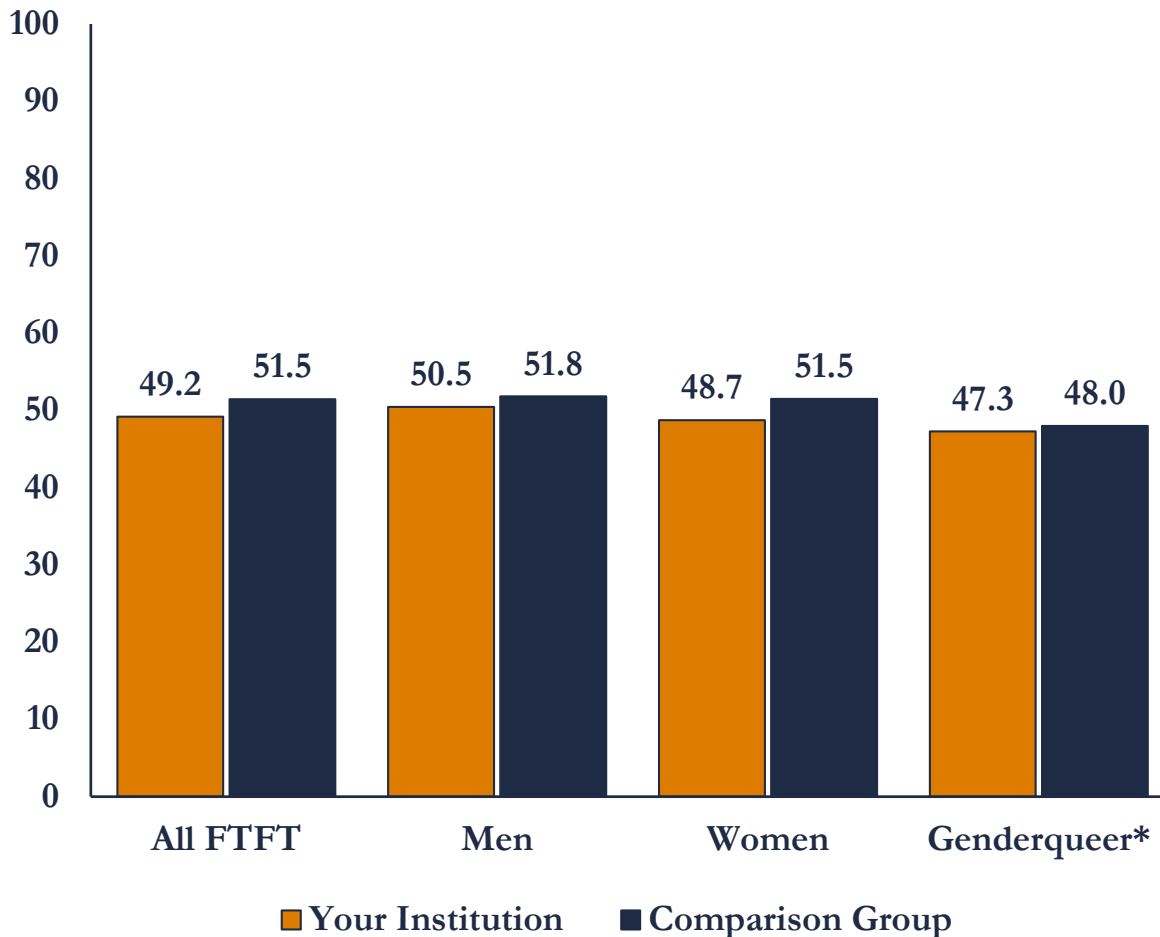

Construct Items

- Adjust to the academic demands of college
- Develop effective study skills
- Manage your time effectively
- Understand what your professors expect of you academically

* Includes genderqueer, gender non-conforming, identity not listed above

Sense of Belonging

The campus community is a powerful source of influence on students' development. Sense of Belonging measures the extent to which students feel a sense of academic and social integration on campus.

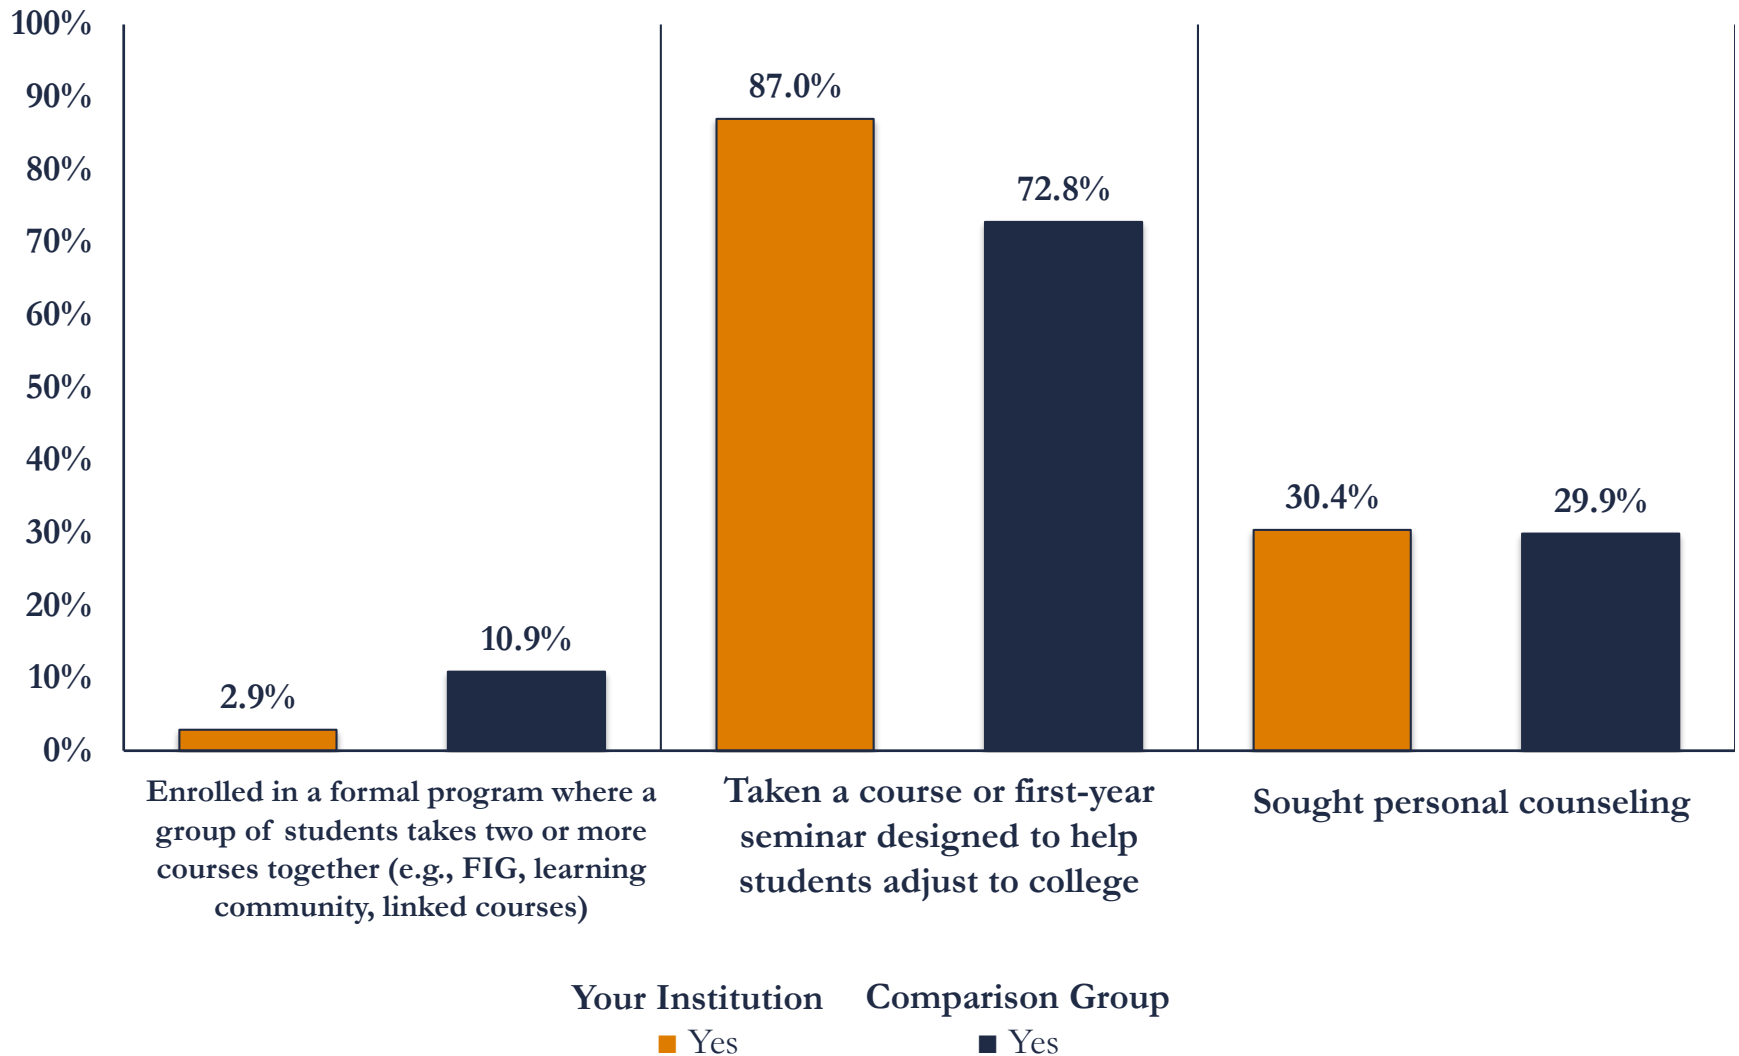

Construct Items

- I feel I am a member of this college
- I feel a sense of belonging to this campus
- I see myself as part of the campus community
- If asked, I would recommend this college to others

* Includes genderqueer, gender non-conforming, identity not listed above

Navigational Action

These items illustrate how often students participated in institutional programs or engaged in activities that would help them successfully traverse the institution.

Navigational Action

These items illustrate how often students participated in institutional programs or engaged in activities that would help them successfully traverse the institution.

Health and Wellness

Students' physical and emotional well-being can affect many important aspects of the student experience including academic performance and persistence. These items gauge student behaviors, attitudes, and experiences related to health and wellness.

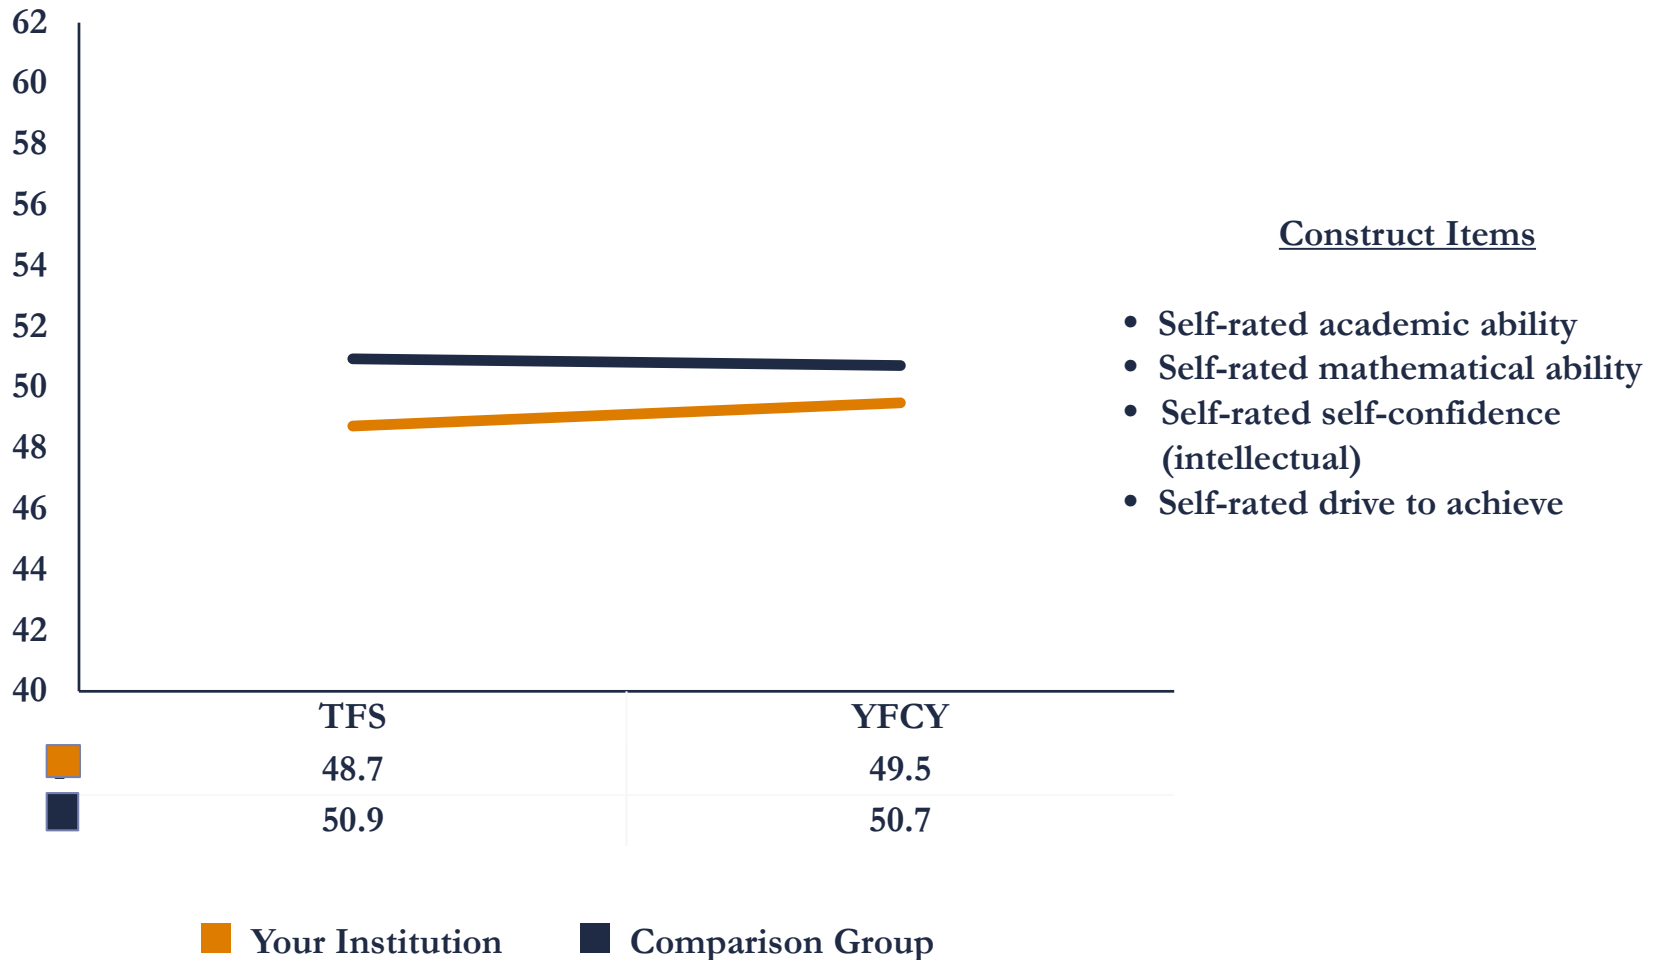

Academic Outcomes and Experiences

Students develop skills, knowledge, and abilities through their experiences both in and out of the classroom.

Academic Self-Concept

Academic Self-Concept is a unified measure of students' beliefs about their abilities and confidence in academic environments.

Habits of Mind

Habits of Mind is a unified measure of the behaviors and traits associated with academic success. These learning behaviors are seen as the foundation for lifelong learning.

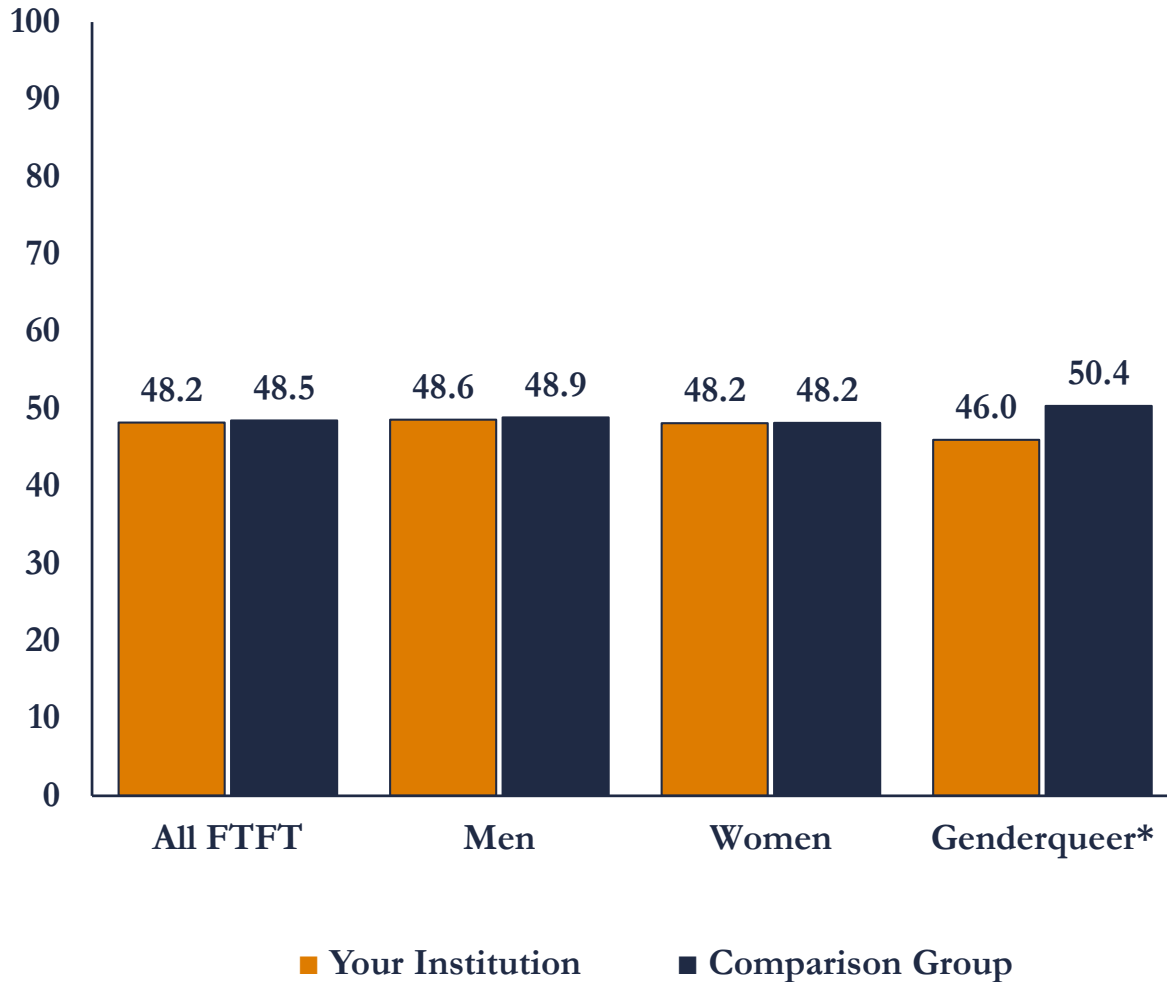

Construct Items

- Support your opinion with logical argument

* Includes genderqueer, gender non-conforming, identity not listed above

Campus Climate and Diversity

A diverse and inclusive campus environment strengthens students' learning experience and prepares them to participate in an increasingly diverse society.

Satisfaction with Campus Diversity

A diverse campus – including students, faculty, and ideas – has a powerful impact on the student experience. These items gauge students’ satisfaction with the diversity of faculty, student body, and beliefs.

Satisfaction

Understanding how students perceive their college experience identifies areas that are working well and sheds light on those that need improvement.

Satisfaction with Coursework

Satisfaction with Coursework measures the extent to which students see their coursework as relevant, useful, and applicable to their academic success and future plans.

Construct Items

- Relevance of coursework to future career plans
- Relevance of coursework to everyday life
- General education or core curriculum courses
- First-year programs (e.g., first-year seminar, learning community, linked courses, common book)

* Includes genderqueer, gender non-conforming, identity not listed above

Satisfaction with Academic Support and Courses

Gauges use of and satisfaction with campus academic support structures and types of coursework required in general education.

Satisfaction with Services and Community

Where students live, how they are oriented to the campus, and the support they receive during the first year are important determinants of their college experience. These items gauge use of and satisfaction with campus services and general community.

Overall Satisfaction

Overall Satisfaction is a unified measure of students' satisfaction with the college experience.

Construct Items

- Overall college experience
- If given the choice, would you still choose to enroll at your current (or most) recent college?
- Overall academic experience
- Overall quality of instruction

* Includes genderqueer, gender non-conforming, identity not listed above

The more you get to know your students,
the better you can understand their needs.
