About Stetson University

Beginnings

New York entrepreneur Henry A. DeLand, who played a leading role in establishing the city of DeLand in 1876, founded the university as DeLand Academy. Thirteen students started classes in a rented building in 1883. The following year, Mr. DeLand erected a building at the corner of Woodland Boulevard and Minnesota Avenue to house classrooms and administrative offices. That building, now known as DeLand Hall, is the oldest building in Florida to be used continuously for higher education. After experiencing financial difficulties in the late 1880s, Mr. DeLand found it impossible to support the university. He turned to Philadelphia hatmaker John Batterson Stetson, who had recently built a winter home in DeLand. Mr. Stetson provided much-needed funding for the new institution, and in 1887, John B. Stetson was elected to the university's Board of Trustees. In 1889 the institution was renamed in his honor.

National Student Clearinghouse Completion Rates

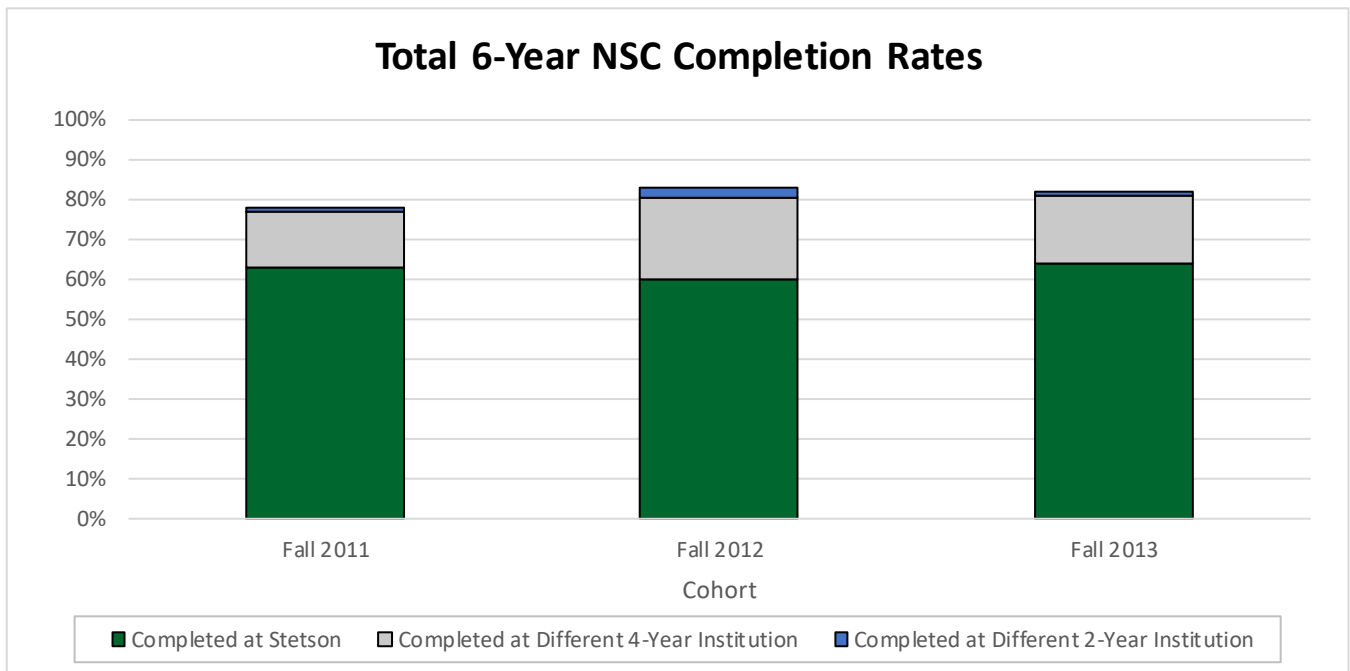

Tables below show total six-year college completion rates for National Student Clearinghouse (NSC) FTIC cohorts, through May 31st of the sixth academic year, including completion rates for students who graduated from Stetson and for those who completed their degrees at another institution. These data are based on reports from the NSC, which tracks 96 percent of college enrollments nationwide.

Important note on methodology: National Student Clearinghouse cohort definitions differ from federal cohort definitions used in typical graduation rate reporting. NSC cohorts include first-time degree-seeking students, of any age, who began their postsecondary studies in the fall term of the cohort year and exclude students who 1) have prior enrollment records, 2) were 17 years old or younger during the fall term of the cohort year (i.e., current dual enrollment students).
