

STETSON UNIVERSITY

POSITION: Adjunct Instructor, Digital Arts

The Department of Creative Arts at Stetson University seeks an individual who can offer one face-to-face section of Digital Arts Fundamentals, on a part-time basis.

QUALIFICATIONS: A Master's Degree is preferred, but applicants who have teaching or professional experience in the area will be considered. Candidates should have a strong commitment to innovative teaching, a creative approach to pedagogical design and implementation, and a strong commitment to all aspects of diversity in our learning-centered community. Applicants must already be approved for working in the U.S. and pass a background check.

RESPONSIBILITIES: The primary responsibility of this position is to teach one face-to-face section of Digital Arts Fundamentals (DIGA 101A).

STIPEND: Stipend is competitive and proportional to the number of classes taught.

STARTING DATE: January 9, 2023

APPLICATION: Applicants must send the following materials for consideration: 1) a cover letter summarizing the candidate's interest in and qualifications for the position, 2) a current curriculum vitae, 3) an indication of the candidate's general availability, and 4) a recent representative syllabus and corresponding teaching evaluations, if available. As a part of the hiring process, the candidate should be prepared to provide (when requested) a transcript from the institution awarding the highest degree earned and names with contact information for three non-Stetson references, at least one of whom has done a recent teaching observation or can address the applicant's performance as a teacher. Application materials may be submitted electronically to creativearts@stetson.edu

THE DEPARTMENT: The Department of Creative Arts (<https://www2.stetson.edu/creative-arts/>) consists of 11 full-time faculty members and offers majors and minors in Studio Art, Art History, Digital Arts, and Theatre Arts. Our faculty members are teacher-scholars who engage students with various experiential, high-impact, and community-engaged learning opportunities.

THE COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES: Stetson's College of Arts and Sciences (<https://www.stetson.edu/portal/artsci/>) is the largest and most diverse of the University's colleges and schools; it includes the humanities, social sciences, natural sciences, education, and creative arts. With nineteen academic departments and eight interdisciplinary programs, the College is the liberal arts core of the University. A great strength of the College is its faculty of approximately 140 full-time teacher-scholars. The College offers 31 undergraduate majors and 34 undergraduate minors and offers six graduate degrees in Education, Counselor Education, and Creative Writing. Every undergraduate major requires a senior research project, allowing students the opportunity to design and carry out independent research under faculty mentorship. Our academic programs are shaped by the values of social justice and civic responsibility. All of our courses and programs of study promote engaged learning, whereby students create connections between the classroom or lab and the local, regional, and global community. The academic programs of the College of Arts and Sciences prepare students to live significant lives and to interact with and positively affect the world around them.

THE UNIVERSITY: Founded in 1883, Stetson University (<http://www.stetson.edu>) is a private, selective university comprised of a rich array of liberal arts and professional academic programs. Collectively, Stetson's faculty works with nearly 4,300 students in undergraduate, graduate, and professional programs. The University's historic main campus, located in DeLand, enrolls more than 3,000 students in undergraduate programs in the College of Arts and Sciences, the School of Business Administration, and the School of Music. Stetson University College of Law, Florida's first law school, moved from the main campus to Gulfport in 1954, and, with the addition of the Tampa Law Center, serves approximately 1,000 students working full-time or part-time toward J.D. or LL.M. degrees. Graduate programs offered at the main campus and at Stetson University Center in Celebration include Business, Accounting, Educational Leadership, Counseling, and Creative Writing. Florida's oldest private institution of higher learning, Stetson has regularly been ranked among the best regional universities in the Southeast and was the first private college in Florida to be granted a chapter of Phi Beta Kappa.

Stetson University provides an inspiring education that engages students with rigorous academic and creative study grounded in liberal learning and promotes civic values of personal and social responsibility. Working closely with faculty and with one another, students cultivate abilities to explore issues deeply, think critically, reason empirically, speak persuasively, and connect ideas creatively. Firmly committed to inclusive excellence, our vibrant community of teacher-scholars nurtures the potential of individual students to lead lives of significance and prepares each to meet the challenges of shaping the future—locally, nationally, and globally.

THE COMMUNITY: DeLand is a picturesque residential community of 32,000 located 20 miles west of Daytona Beach and 35 miles northeast of Orlando. The area offers extensive cultural as well as recreational activities.

Stetson University is an Equal Opportunity Employer that affirms cultural diversity and inclusion as a core value of academic excellence at Stetson University. We are committed to achieving equal access in education, employment, and participation through the recruitment and retention of outstanding faculty, staff, and students from diverse backgrounds, and to meaningful academic and intellectual transformation in curriculum, research and service. We are dedicated to actions and policies that foster a community in which individuals with various identities, cultures, backgrounds, and viewpoints work together to create opportunities for engagement through rewarding and fulfilling careers and personal experiences in a culturally and racially diverse society and a globalized world. We strongly encourage members of historically under-represented and economically-disadvantaged groups and women to apply for employment. Stetson University is an EEO, ADA, ADEA, and GINA employer.
