The above changes are inline with the catalog statement listed here: Courses may be dropped online starting during pre-registration and running through the end of the add period at the beginning of the semester. They may be dropped using the Add/Drop Form up until the deadline for dropping without academic penalty, which occurs two weeks before the end of classes for a full-term fall or spring semester course, and one week before the end of classes for half-term or summer courses. (See the Academic Calendar for specific dates for each semester). The form requires the signature of the student's advisor. Courses dropped prior to that deadline will not affect the student's GPA and will not appear on the student's transcripts. <https://catalog.stetson.edu/undergraduate/student-policy/records-grades-registration/registration/>
