What happens if there is severe weather during Residential New Student Check-in?

- Severe weather is always a concern in Central Florida. While we will continue to serve vehicles in rainy conditions, extra precautions will be taken for more severe conditions. In the event of high winds or lightning in the area, our check-in process must shut down for at least approximately 30 minutes or longer depending on the duration of the severe weather to ensure the safety of our check-in staff. Please plan to shelter in place in your vehicle if this situation does occur.

I am a residential student. Where should I go after we finish at the Lynn Business Center?

- During move-in, Stetson University creates specific traffic flow patterns for students and guests to follow to ensure everyone has a smooth move-in experience. Students will receive a QR code to directions to their residence halls when they get their keys at the Lynn Business Center Drive-Thru Check-In.

Will there be any assistance provided to help me get my things into my residence hall room?

- Home Team, a group of current students who are excited to help and welcome you to campus, will be available to assist with your move-in. If you plan to use Home Team assistance, we highly suggest marking your belongings with your name and room number before heading to campus.

I am already on campus for a student organization or sports team. How do I get my FOCUS materials?

- Please visit the Lynn Business Center Lobby from 8 a.m. – 2 p.m. on Saturday, August 19. Your FOCUS materials will be ready for you to pick up during this time.
