

Application for Sigma Iota Rho, Stetson University
The International Studies Honor Society

Undergraduate members are the driving force behind the success of the chapter. It is their energy and commitment combined with the experience of the faculty advisor that help fulfill the mission of Sigma Iota Rho. In order to qualify for undergraduate membership, students must meet the following criteria:

- Completed course work in international studies including courses in relevant subject areas of anthropology, economics, foreign languages, geography, history, political science, and other related disciplines;
- Attained a junior standing and completed at least 20 credits (5 units) of International Studies courses, including at least two courses at the 300 or 400 level;
- Attained a cumulative grade point average of 3.3 or higher in all courses, and a grade point average of at least 3.4 in international studies courses;

If you meet the criteria, please fill out this form front and back and staple it to a printout of your degree audit. Submit your application together with the $45 induction fee to Glenna Roof at Elizabeth 334. Inductions usually take place every Spring semester, midway through April.
