

The report of Honor Code Resolutions for Fall 2018 through Fall 2021 academic semesters
HONOR CODE	Fall 2018- Fall 2021
Referral
Stetson Student Self-Report	0
Stetson Student	7
Faculty Referral	6
Administrative/Staff Referral	8
Referral from Outside of Stetson Community	1
Anonymous	0
Alleged Violations
Social media harassment	1
Use of offensive slurs, harassment	2
Violating anonymity of exam	2
Violating exam time conditions	1
Use of incorrect exam template for exam conditions	1
Unauthorized talking, assistance, or copying during exam	5
Consulting unauthorized materials during exam	1
Unauthorized collaboration on assignment	3
Providing unauthorized assistance on assignment	1
Improper attribution on academic work	1
Deception, misrepresentation, or falsification	1
False or misleading claim of pro bono credit	1
Violation of state or local law	1
Failure to disclose violations of law to College of Law	1
Outcome
Violation	7
No Intentional Violation	2
No Violation	12
No Decision Issued	1
Sanctions Issued for Violations (some students received more than one)
Expulsion	1
Required professionalism training	2
Required review of proper attribution in academic work	1
Grade reduction	1
Grade of 0.0 or loss of credit for course	1
Grade of 0.0 for assignment or assessment	2
Removal from Co-Curricular or Extra-Curricular Activities or Events	1
Written reprimand	4
Letter of apology	3