About Stetson University College of Law

Founded in 1900, Stetson University College of Law is Florida's first law school. With its main law campus in Gulfport and a satellite campus in Tampa, Stetson is fully accredited by the American Bar Association and has been a member of the Association of American Law Schools since 1931.

With more than 1,000 students, Stetson Law is ranked first in the nation for trial advocacy and third for legal writing. In addition to the juris doctor law degree, Stetson offers certificates of concentration in advocacy, elder law, and international law, dual-degree programs for the J.D./M.B.A., J.D./M.P.H., J.D./M.D., and J.D./Grado (Spain), and LL.M. degrees in elder law and international law.

Stetson is home to the Centers for Excellence in Advocacy, Elder Law, Higher Education Law and Policy, and International Law, and Institutes for Biodiversity Law and Policy and Caribbean

Law and Policy. The National Clearinghouse for Science, Technology and the Law is also based at Stetson.

Stetson offers international programs in nine countries, including a fall-semester program in London, England.

An international leader in advocacy, Stetson has a long-standing record of championship at the world, national, regional and state levels of interscholastic competition. Students can further expand their practical experience by participating in clinical or internship opportunities.

Stetson University's DeLand campus is home to the College of Arts and Sciences, School of Business Administration, and School of Music. The Stetson University Center at Celebration offers graduate and professional development programs.

The Symbols of Commencement

Graduates' Academic Regalia: Academic disciplines are noted by color; law is represented as purple. The doctoral gown has bell sleeves with velvet chevrons on the sleeves and velvet on the panels. The hood is bound and edged with purple velvet and lined with green, the official color of Stetson University as the institution conferring the degree. The square cap combines the symbolism of the book and that of a privileged guild. Students graduating with anticipated honors wear a gold tassel on the cap, and others wear a purple tassel denoting the discipline of law.

Students wearing purple cords are LL.M. graduates. Gold cords are worn by students graduating with anticipated honors. Student leaders and named award winners are wearing green cords. Students wearing blue cords have earned the William F. Blews Pro Bono Service Award. Co-Valedictorians are wearing gold stoles.

The Mace: The Stetson University Mace, used during all commencement ceremonies, is a ceremonial staff used by many academic institutions as a symbol of the right to confer degrees. The Stetson mace, designed by Episcopalian Canon Edward Nason West of the Cathedral Church of St. John the Divine, New York, was presented to President J. Ollie Edmunds in 1956.

The Medallion: The President's Medallion, worn at official academic occasions, was first used for the inauguration of President John E. Johns in 1969. The silver medallion includes the University Seal embraced by a wreath of laurel. The circular seal, adopted between 1889 and 1891, bears the motto Pro Deo et Veritate ("For God and Truth") and the Light of Truth resting on the Book of Wisdom.

Honorary Degree Citations

JULES L. COLEMAN, you are a leading expert on torts and the philosophy of law.

Over your distinguished scholarly career, you earned a Ph.D. in philosophy from Rockefeller University, an M.S.L. from Yale Law School, and a bachelor's degree from Brooklyn College. You have authored several books including Hart's Postscript, The Practice of Principle, and have co-authored the Oxford Handbook of Jurisprudence and the Philosophy of Law.

You hold the Wesley Newcomb Hohfeld Professor of Jurisprudence and Professor of Philosophy at Yale Law School. As the visiting Culverhouse Chair at Stetson University College of Law during Spring 2011, we are grateful that you have shared your knowledge with our students.

In light of your many accomplishments, and under the authority vested in me by Stetson University's Board of Trustees, I proudly present you with the Honorary Doctor of Laws degree.

ANDREW G.T. MOORE II, you are one of the nation's leading authorities on corporate law. After earning your law degree from Tulane University Law School, you have served your profession with distinction and honor.

You have distinguished yourself as a corporate litigator and investment banking firm advisor. You served as a justice of the Delaware Supreme Court, where you authored several major opinions that defined the modern law of mergers and acquisitions.

You have been recognized by the American Bar Association for your distinguished service in promoting lawyers' recovery from addiction. In 2005, you joined Stetson University College of Law as its inaugural Jurist-in-Residence, and you continue to serve the College as a Distinguished Professorial Lecturer.

In light of your many accomplishments, and under the authority vested in me by Stetson University's Board of Trustees, I proudly present you with the Honorary Doctor of Laws degree.

Anticipated Honors

Honors designations for J.D. candidates are based on grades earned through a candidate's next-to-last semester. Final graduation honors for all degrees will be determined by the Registrar after final grades have been posted. Final graduation honors will appear on the diploma and official transcript.

Final Degree Evaluation

The listing of candidates, degrees, and academic honors in this program is preliminary and subject to final degree requirement evaluation. A candidate earns a degree after the Registrar determines that the candidate has satisfactorily completed all graduation requirements and posted final grades on the official record. The diploma of Stetson University College of Law, signed and sealed by its appropriate officers, is the official public document evidencing that a degree has been awarded.
