

New Challenges for International Study

Presented by
Leta Finch

Executive Director, Higher Education Practice Group
Arthur J. Gallagher Risk Management Services, Inc.

© 2006 Arthur J. Gallagher & Co.

New Challenges for International Study

Program Creation, Approval, and Risk Management

Program Classifications:

- ❖ Sponsored
- ❖ Contractual
- ❖ Permissive

New Challenges for International Study

5 Operational Areas

1. General Issues

- ❖ Minors traveling aboard
- ❖ Disabled traveling abroad
- ❖ Legal and criminal issues
- ❖ State Department warnings
 - Who decides?
 - What are the relevant considerations?
 - Who decides to bring ‘em home if things become unstable?

New Challenges for International Study

2. Health

- ❖ Injuries
- ❖ Illnesses
- ❖ Mental health crises

New Challenges for International Study

3. Communications

Who, What, When, and How?

New Challenges for International Study

4. Operating Standards and Safety Regulations

- ❖ The Forum on Education Abroad and their Standards of Good Practice
- ❖ The British Standards Institute “Specification for the provisions of visits, fieldwork, expeditions, and adventurous activities, outside the United Kingdom.”

New Challenges for International Study

5. Insurance: Domestic and Foreign

New Challenges for International Study

Typical Insurance Coverages

- ❖ Commercial General Liability
- ❖ Commercial Auto Liability
- ❖ Foreign Liability
- ❖ Global Property
- ❖ International Business Interruption
- ❖ Health Insurance and Major Medical
- ❖ International Travel Assistance, including repatriation
- ❖ Accidental Death and Dismemberment

New Challenges for International Study

Typical Insurance Coverages, continued

- ❖ Workers' Compensation
- ❖ Foreign Voluntary Workers Compensation
- ❖ Defense Base Act coverage (DBA)
- ❖ Kidnap, Ransom, and Extortion Insurance
- ❖ Political Risk

New Challenges for International Study

To access Gallagher's

“College and University Intentional Education Programs: Managing the Risks”

Go to <http://www.ajgrms.com/highereducation>