DESCRIPTION

This programme aims at giving students a thorough knowledge of international economic legal issues. According to the French grading system, the master's degree is a national diploma recognised in the European Union countries and which is equivalent to a Legum Magister (LL.M.). The program focuses mainly on the study of the World Trade Organization, of the European Union in an economic perspective and of international economic development. The MINTEC also aims at providing students with some basic knowledge of international law, contracts and markets regulations. Another study trip will be organised as part of this programme.

The two semesters are composed of mandatory courses.

Two tracks are available: the Research track and the Professional track.

- Students opting for the Research track must write a master's thesis. When the programme is successfully completed, students who have chosen this track may apply for a PhD.
- Students opting for the Professional track must do an internship (minimum 2 months eq. 308 hrs) and write a report.

SKILLS AND TARGETED OCCUPATIONS*SKILLS:

Occupational integration preparation, legal document drafting, plea and counselling simulations.

For more information, please read the Master's RNCP fact sheet (Professional Certifications National Directory) on the professional certifications website) <https://certificationprofessionnelle.fr/>

PROFESSIONAL PROSPECTS:

Students who obtain the MINTEC have several legal job opportunities, and especially those in relation with International economic law. The programme provides them with the skills needed to hold positions in law firms, companies but also in public services, including international or European institutions. Students opting for the Research Track can pursue academic research.

ADMISSION AND REGISTRATION REQUIREMENTS*TARGETED PUBLIC:

A four-year degree in law is required, equivalent to 240 ECTS (European credits) i.e. Bachelor's degree, Master 1 or equivalent. Other qualifications and area of study may be considered by the Admission Committee. Students must have an adequate command of the English language to enrol. An applicant's English proficiency level may be demonstrated by means of score reports of recognized exams, tests or certificates (equivalent to C1 level of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages) or by any relevant means (study and life experience in a program taught in English...).

Selection criteria

The admission committee will assess your application based on academic results, English proficiency, personal experience (international and/or professional) and motivation.

The internal detailed procedure for application will be specified on UT1 or European School of Law website (<http://esl.ut-capitole.fr/>) at a later stage.

According to your country of residence, you may have to comply with additional procedures. Please get in touch with the Campus France office in your home country or check at: www.campusfrance.org.

Registration fees: 3000 € for the academic year 2020/21, no matter the candidate's nationality. Not yet determined for 2021/22.
