HOLLAND & KNIGHT LLP, Tampa, FL

Partner, Jan. 2021–June 2023 (Associate, June–July 2011; Oct. 2012–Dec. 2020)

Litigated in state and federal courts across the country, including at the trial and appellate level, and advised on regulatory and corporate compliance issues. Represented clients in class actions, multi-plaintiff consolidated litigation, government investigations, regulatory examinations, and enforcement actions. Tried cases as first and second chair, handling direct and cross-examinations of fact and expert witnesses, as well as pre- and post-trial briefing. Took and defended depositions and prepared witnesses for testifying, including CEOs, officers, directors, and other senior executives. Coordinated and managed incident response and internal investigations related to data security events and prepared and guided implementation of privacy policies. Drafted, negotiated, and advised through closing on real estate agreements, business broker contracts, and other transactions, including post-closing amendments related to mergers and acquisitions. Represented multiple professional sports teams in Florida, including Major League Baseball and National Hockey League franchises in high-profile litigation.

Select representative engagements:

- defended Fortune 500 company against class action arising under the Telephone Consumer Protection Act (TCPA) in which plaintiff claimed nationwide class entitled to $542 million to $1.9 billion in damages; obtained order denying class certification
- defended healthcare provider against class action arising under the TCPA in which plaintiff claimed nationwide class damages of $24 million; obtained order denying class certification

- defended a global telecommunications company against consolidated, putative class actions alleging breach of data security impacting “billions” of cellphone users; obtained order dismissing eight-count, amended consolidated class action complaint in its entirety
- defended national bank and affiliate in multi-year, high-profile financing and construction litigation in which multi-billion-dollar public company plaintiff sought $11 million in damages; obtained summary judgment
- defended an international company, employee, and director against claims of fraud and violation of Unfair and Deceptive Trade Practices Act (UDTPA) and Racketeer Influenced and Corrupt Organizations Act (RICO); prevailed in federal district and appellate court and granted attorneys’ fees under statute “North Carolina court[s] ha[d] yet to apply” upon ruling that defendants “obtained excellent results” and “defeated all of the plaintiffs’ claims”
- defended a large, multi-specialty medical group with more than 80 locations in consolidated, putative data breach class actions arising from a ransomware attack at vendor involving personal information of alleged 170,000 patients; obtained order dismissing all 11 causes of action filed in New York state court despite court’s recognition that case law was “far from uniform” and there was “not binding precedent”
- represented mergers and acquisitions (M&A) advisor in action for fee owed for transaction in excess of $17 million; defeated counterclaims of fraudulent inducement, breach of contract, and UDTPA; obtained summary judgment for full $1.25 million damages claim and full attorneys’ fee award of approximately $1 million
- defended former officers and directors of multiple community banks in three separate actions filed by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corp. (FDIC) for claims of alleged negligence, gross negligence, and breach of fiduciary duty; obtained favorable result in actions seeking in excess of $77 million in damages
- represented national bank in a three-day trial in financing and tax credit dispute; obtained final judgment declaring that client had a top priority security interest in collateral of developer fees
- defended a surgery center in federal court against a putative class action arising from a data breach involving an alleged 142,000 patients; obtained an order dismissing all claims regarding a “novel” issue of law for which “circuit courts have reached conflicting conclusions” and that had “not been addressed by the Eleventh Circuit”

MICHIGAN STATE HOUSING DEVELOPMENT AUTHORITY, Tampa, FL (remote)

Special Assistant Attorney General, Aug. 2015–Sept. 2016

Appointed by State of Michigan as part of engagement of Holland & Knight LLP in order to advise state-run lending institution on compliance with consumer protection and lending laws. Reviewed, analyzed, and revised advertisements of lending program. Drafted and revised mortgage, promissory note, and security interest filing templates and forms.
