

The American Caribbean Law Initiative invites you to attend its summer law symposium in the beautiful Caribbean city of Port of Spain, Trinidad and Tobago from July 9 -12, 2009. The conference, "Dispute Resolution and Restorative Justice" will focus on the latest developments in dispute resolution from cross-cultural and multi-disciplinary perspectives.

The international group of presenters includes demonstrations of the latest technological innovations in the field by the Canadian group Chambersette and a United Kingdom company, The Mediation Room. Jurists, government representatives, academics and members of the bar will lead discussions concerning online dispute resolution, therapeutic jurisprudence and restorative justice. They will highlight the application of these methods to numerous legal areas including family law, business and finance, and human rights.

Don't miss this invaluable opportunity to share and learn what's transpiring in the ongoing transformation of dispute resolution in the law. The Hilton Trinidad and Tobago will be the host hotel and other fine hotels are located nearby. Discounts are available for early registration and/or membership in the ACLI.

Maracas Bay, Trinidad.
