Financial Declaration

Stetson University College of Law is required by U.S. government regulations to check the availability of adequate funding for your tuition, fees and living expenses. We will be unable to provide you with the documents necessary to obtain your visa without verification of adequate funding. Please indicate the type of funding you will be receiving and attach the appropriate official documentation. All documentation must be in English and the sum should be expressed in U.S. dollars. Documents must be DATED and be less than twelve (12) months old when the I-20 is issued.

(Please check the applicable source(s))

- Funded by parents or relatives: (1) Submit an affidavit or a legalized letter of sponsorship which indicates that your sponsor is willing and able to support your tuition, fees and living expenses for attending Stetson University College of Law; and (2) Submit a bank statement or credit reference from a bank stating the availability of the minimum estimated expenses.
- Funded by your government, an organization or company: Your sponsor must submit a signed letter on official stationery stating that funding is available for your study at Stetson College of Law and detail the expenses and length of time that support will be given (Stetson's LL.M. program is 12 months in duration).
- Funded by a bank loan: Submit an official letter of certification from the lending institution.
- Funded by a Salary or Study-leave allowance: Submit an official letter from your employer.
- Other Funding: Submit official documentation stating the amount of financial support to be provided and the length of time for which it will be available.

Certification: I certify that all information provided herein and in accompanying documents is complete and accurate to the best of my knowledge. I understand that providing false or incomplete information may be the basis for denial of admission, or if admitted, dismissal from the College of Law. If accepted, I agree to comply with all the rules and regulations of Stetson University College of Law.
