Online Citators: Shepard's
Whitney A. Curtis
wcurtis@law.stetson.edu
Stetson University College of Law Library

Shepard's

- Shepard's is located on Lexis.
- The process of researching the history of legal authority is known as "Shepardizing."
- Go to http://www.lexisnexis.com/lawschool and log on like you normally would.
Shepard's Signals

- To aid you in determining if your case is good law, Shepard's has several “signals” that alert you to the treatment of your case.

Shepard's will give you a signal and a description of the Shepard’s Signal.
Limiting Your Results: Focus Restrict By

- Shepard's allows for custom restrictions
- Choices for limitations are by treatment analysis, jurisdictions, headnotes, and by date