

Brass and Percussion Camp - Honors Recital Information

The Honors Recital is an optional performance opportunity open to all camp participants, regardless of age. Students may audition to perform a solo work with piano accompaniment.

The recital will take place on Wednesday evening at 7:30 PM in Lee Chapel (Elizabeth Hall).

Brass and Percussion Camp 2026

STETSON UNIVERSITY

Details

- Perform one solo of your choice (maximum length: 10 minutes).
- Brass auditions: Submitted via video recording (see instructions below).
- Percussion auditions: Held in person on the first day of camp.
- Results: Posted Monday evening in the dorms and on our social media.
- Accompanist rehearsal: Scheduled for Tuesday with a staff pianist.
- Students selected to perform should dress in professional concert attire.

Video Audition Instructions (Brass Only)

Please submit your audition using the Google Form at <https://forms.gle/gLioBBfTAqXaAwtcA> by Sunday, June 26, 2026.

Requirements:

- Upload an unlisted YouTube link of your performance.
- Perform the full solo selection you plan to present at the recital. (you can skip long rest)
- No accompanist is required for the audition video.
- You must submit a clean PDF copy of the piano score along with your video.

Important:

- A staff pianist will be provided if you are selected.
- You must have a piano score to audition. Students without a piano part will not be eligible.
- If selected, your piano score will be given to the accompanist for preparation. All other scores will be returned.

If you do not own a piano score, please check with your band director or private teacher to borrow one.

Recording Tips

- Listen to your video before submitting.
- Ensure the audio balance is clear and not distorted.
- If the sound is too loud, move farther from the microphone or adjust recording levels.

If you have questions, please contact Dr. Aaron Witek at awitek@stetson.edu.

We look forward to hearing your audition!