

Sandra Shafer

Choral Director and Musical Theatre Instructor

Apopka High School

Sandra Shafer is currently the Choral Director and Musical Theatre Instructor at Apopka High School. Previously, she was the Choral Director at Liberty Middle School. Sandra holds a Bachelor's Degree in Vocal Music Education from Stetson University in DeLand, FL. As a student at Stetson University, Sandra served as the head of the Choral Work Study, was a student conductor for the Concert Choir, directed the Broadway Revue, and performed with the Opera Theatre. Her opera roles included: Susanna in Mozart's Marriage of Figaro, Sister Genovieffa in Puccini's Suor Angelica, and Alessandra in Handel's Berenice. Currently, Sandra may be seen as a soloist and section leader with the Winter Park Presbyterian Church Choir. Student choirs under her direction have received Superior ratings at District "Music Performance Assessment", as well as toured throughout the United States. Student Musical Theatre Solos & Ensembles under her direction have received superior ratings at District Thespian Competitions. Sandra is currently an active member of the American Choral Directors Association, Florida Vocal Association, Florida Music Educators Association and Sigma Alpha Iota.

