COMMENCEMENT SPEAKERS

Student speakers are nominated by faculty or their peers, with final selection by a faculty committee.

LEA ALEXANDER '25

Lea Alexander is graduating with a Bachelor of Business Administration in Marketing. As a native of Muncie, Indiana, Lea came to Stetson to pursue both her academic passion for sales and marketing, as well as her athletic career on the women's soccer team. She would tell anyone that you could have always found her somewhere in the Lynn Business Center, as she spent most of her time there, studying and working on projects.

Lea also is very thankful for the four years she spent as a member of the soccer team, and she will cherish the memories made with her teammates. Her favorite memory was scoring her first hat-trick — three goals in one game — this past season against Alabama A&M, along with the many meals and travel trips she experienced with her team.

Lea loves hanging out with friends, doing anything active, and watching movies and TV when she can. An ASUN Conference honor roll member, four-year member of the Dean's list and a part of Beta Gamma Sigma, Lea takes great pride in her academic and athletic accomplishments. Also, she attributes her success to the amazing faculty and staff she has worked with at Stetson.

Finally, Lea would like to thank her family and friends for all their continuous love and support, specifically her mother (Julie Alexander), father (Steve Alexander) and her two sisters (Ellie and Maria Alexander). Lea would not be here today without her faith in the Lord and his many blessings he has given her.

NICHOLAS DIEUX '25

Nicholas Dieux graduates from Stetson with a Bachelor of Music degree in Vocal Performance. A baritone, his primary vocal instruction at Stetson was under Dr. Craig Maddox (retired) and Dr. Chadley Ballantyne.

While at Stetson, Nicholas appeared in numerous roles within the School of Music's Opera Theatre department. Those performances began as a first-year student with the comedic role of Maestro Spinelloccio in Puccini's one-act comedy Gianni Schicchi. As a sophomore, he continued with principal roles in all of Stetson's mainstage productions.

Nicholas has performed internationally with Lyric Opera Studio Weimar, performing the role of Papageno in Mozart's Die Zauberflöte. He received the Stetson Maris Award for his junior voice recital, titled The Wanderer, which portrayed the archetype found within German-Romantic literature. During his Stetson tenure, he also was a 2024-2025 Apprentice Artist with Opera Orlando, where he performed in productions of Verdi's Macbeth and Defiant Requiem: Verdi at Terezín.

After graduation, Nicholas will reprise his performance of Papageno with the Academy of Vocal Arts' Summer Opera Workshop, before returning to Lyric Opera Studio Weimar to perform Count Almaviva in Le Nozze di Figaro. Then, following his busy summer, Nicholas plans to pursue his Master of Music degree in Vocal Performance at Louisiana State University.

RACHEL YASMEEN GORDON '23, MBA '25

Rachel Yasmeen Gordon is a proud member of Stetson University's Class of 2025, earning her Master of Business Administration with a concentration in Data Analytics. She first came to Stetson in 2019 as an undergraduate student majoring in Communication and Media Studies with a minor in Music — and never could have predicted how much her journey would grow from there.

After discovering her passion for business, Rachel transitioned into the School of Business Administration to pursue her MBA. A first-generation college graduate, she stayed busy at Stetson, working campus jobs, holding leadership roles, and taking on graduate assistantships along the way. After graduation, Rachel plans to kickstart her career in sales and dreams of eventually building her own company. She credits Stetson for helping her find not just an education, but also a second home — and the confidence to chase every opportunity ahead.

SHYENNE PARRIS '25

Shyenne "Shy" Parris is graduating with a Master of Fine Arts in Creative Writing. A 29-year-old Afrolatine poet and writer, Shy has been performing across New York City for nearly a decade. Their work centers on themes of history, community, legacy, and Trinidad—each piece grounded in the belief that love carries us through the hardest moments. Originally from the Bronx by way of Trinidad, Shy is the eldest sibling (though some might find that hard to believe). When not writing, they serve as dean to the “coolest group of sophomores in school”

TRISTYN AZRIEL RAMPERSAD '25

Tristyn Rampersad is graduating with a Bachelor of Arts degree, majoring in Philosophy and minoring in Political Science. Throughout his time on campus, he has been deeply engaged in both the academic and community life of the university. As a first-year student, he founded Stetson's first undergraduate Moot Court team alongside Dr. Sven Smith. Since then, the team has qualified for the American Moot Court Association's national tournament series each year, advancing to the final national tournament twice.

Tristyn has dabbled in a little bit of everything — from Mock Trial and Model Senate to the Ethics Bowl and leadership with Omicron Delta Kappa — always seeking ways to be a positive force in the community. Over the past few years, he has spent time asking what are, arguably, too many questions. That includes going back and forth between Kant's deontology and Aristotle's virtue ethics (and he still hasn't picked a side).

After graduation, Tristyn will be studying for the LSAT and applying to law schools this fall. His long-term goal is to use the law as a tool for change, guided by a commitment to justice, empathy and reasoned action.

Tristyn is deeply grateful to the professors who challenged his thinking, especially the Philosophy Department, and to the community that made Stetson feel like home while also giving him the space to grow as both a thinker and a person. Most of all, he is honored to graduate among a class of brilliant, passionate students who give him hope for the future.

STETSON UNIVERSITY

Established in 1883, Stetson University is a private, selective, comprehensive university known for its rich array of liberal arts and professional academic programs that integrate hands-on learning with personal and social responsibility.

The university was founded by New York businessman Henry A. DeLand, and was named for John B. Stetson, a Philadelphia hat manufacturer and philanthropist who gave generously to the school.

Stetson's historic campus is in DeLand and includes the College of Arts and Sciences, the School of Business Administration and the School of Music. Stetson University College of Law and Law Center are in the Tampa Bay area.

Stetson University carries significant distinction. Stetson is the first private university in Florida to be awarded a chapter of Phi Beta Kappa, the nation's oldest and most prestigious undergraduate honor society. The university consistently earns high national rankings for academic excellence, and in fall 2024 introduced Hatter Ready, an innovative approach to specialized learning that enhances student engagement through immersive experiences. The university's commitment to community-focused learning is reflected in the Bonner Program, making Stetson one of only about 60 colleges and universities nationwide to offer the program. Endowed by the Bonner Foundation, it provides scholarships to undergraduate students who actively participate in service to others. The College of Law was the first law school in Florida.

Through the years, Stetson has continued to extend its reach—globally through the impact of students, alumni and faculty—as well as through sustained physical growth, which is evident in the 2023 opening of the Cici & Hyatt Brown Hall for Health & Innovation, the historical reconstruction of Hulley Tower on campus, and a new residence hall being built. Under the current strategic plan of Moving Forward Together, the university's progress in advancing from “Florida gem to national treasure” offers great promise for the future.

THE PRESIDENTIAL CHAIN OF OFFICE

The President's Chain of Office, worn at all official academic occasions, was first used by Stetson's sixth president, John E. Johns, PhD. The original medallion is the university seal embraced by a wreath of laurel.

During the inauguration of Christopher F. Roellke, PhD, the university's 10th president, the Board of Trustees presented a new Chain of Office, honoring the names of the presidents of the institution. At the bottom of the Chain is a banner that bears the inscription President, below which sits the official Presidential Medallion, a round medal with the Seal of the University.

ACADEMIC REGALIA

The traditional pageantry of an academic procession is one of the most impressive spectacles of our time. The array of handsome gowns and vividly colored hoods worn by the faculty and administration are the symbols of scholarly attainment.

THE UNIVERSITY SEAL

The circular seal of Stetson University was first adopted between 1889 and 1891, around the time the name of the institution changed from DeLand College to John B. Stetson University. It first appeared on a university catalog in 1891. The drawing was done by an artist-in-residence and approved by President John F. Forbes, PhD, Henry DeLand and John B. Stetson, as well as by the Board of Trustees. The Latin motto, “Pro Deo et Veritate,” is translated “For God and Truth.” The lamp, signifying the “Light of Truth,” rests on the “Book of Wisdom.”

MACE

Maces were originally war instruments, but from the 13th century have been carried by the sergeant-at-arms of educational entities. The mace symbolizes the dignity and authority of the President and the Board of Trustees.

The Stetson University mace, designed by Episcopalian Canon Edward Nason West of the Cathedral Church of St. John the Divine, New York, was presented to President J. Ollie Edmunds, PhD, in 1956.

THE FLAG

The university flag, designed by an alumna in 1976, features Stetson’s official seal in the center, surrounded by the university’s colors of green and white.

GONFALONS

Gonfalons are thought to have originated in western Europe during the Middle Ages, when such banners displayed the personal coat of arms of a nobleman and were used as war flags hung from a horizontal bar and carried on a staff or suspended from a knight’s lance. As early as the 12th century, they were commonly used at state and religious ceremonies. Such pageantry finds a place today in the academic ceremonies of many colleges and universities.

Prominently featuring the university seal and the name of the respective college or school, the gonfalons are richly hued in Stetson’s colors of green and white, accented by a luminous gold. The stately Elizabeth Hall cupola graces each gonfalon as a symbol of our heritage.

The bearers are outstanding members of the student body who have been selected by their respective dean for this honor.
