L. Tickets are required to submit a preference form of banner spaces, chalk spaces, and academic halls for the posting of flyers to the Electoral Committee.

M. Tickets are required to designate a representative to the Electoral Committee on a case-by-case basis should matters necessitate the presence of an advocate (i.e., the deliberation of grievances). This representative shall be required to clear the meeting place before discussion and voting commences.

N. Tickets are responsible for producing receipts in a timely fashion anytime the Electoral Committee requests them.

O. Tickets are prohibited from advertising within a reasonable distance of the Carlton Union Building on the day of the election.

P. Tickets are entitled to table at any point during campaigning except on Election Day when they must be a reasonable distance away from the Carlton Union Building.

Section 303: Funding the Election

Section 303.1: Electoral Committee Finances

The Electoral Committee may petition Campus Life or the Secretary of Finance to purchase materials that advertise and/or create an incentive to participate in the election. Materials may not be given to tickets for disbursement and must be strictly unbiased in nature.

Section 303.2: Ticket Finances

A. Tickets shall self-fund their campaign for an amount up to US $500.00.

B. The Student Government Association shall automatically reimburse these funds after the Electoral Committee has an opportunity to verify that the funds were spent on campaign materials and interests only.

C. If a ticket goes over US $500.00, the Electoral Committee shall consider withdrawing it from candidacy.

D. In the event of special election the electoral committee shall guarantee a campaign budget per ticket of up to $150.

Section 304: The Electoral Committee

Section 304.1: Composition

The Electoral Committee shall be comprised of the Chair and two (2) voting members. Provisions in the Constitution shall govern their appointment and installation.

Section 304.2: Advising and Oversight

A. The advisor(s) of the Association shall also advise the Electoral Committee and act as official University oversight of the process.

B. The Electoral Committee also has the opportunity to designate its own counselor during the campaigning and election process. His/her identity shall be advertised via a method deemed appropriate by the Committee. Selection of the special counselor must be approved by the Senate body in special orders.

C. A judicial oversight panel may only be created to review decisions of the Electoral Committee by commission of two-thirds members present in Special Orders after being proposed by a Senator by means of a motion. The Senate must explicitly define the scope of such a panel. After being commissioned by a two-thirds vote, the Senate shall immediately nominate potential members to the panel and vote to appoint no less and no more than five Senators to serve as members of said panel during the same Senate session which proposed and then commissioned the panel. Members of the Electoral Committee may not be members of the panel. The panel has the power of judicial review over Electoral Committee decisions by the power invested in it by the Senate. The panel must only act within the scope mandated and authorized by the Senate.

D. No judicial oversight panel created without the mandate of the Senate shall be recognized. Its conclusions and recommendations shall be treated as null and void.

Section 304.3: Mandate and Authority

The Electoral Committee is responsible for the effective, transparent, ethical, impartial, and rule-abiding running of the entire elections process. It derives its authority from the Constitution and Bylaws, which the Committee has affirmed to uphold in all matters.

Section 304.4: Provisions and Duties

A. The Committee shall decide on dates specified herein.

B. The Committee shall conduct an information session for tickets wherein rules, regulations, and expectations are clearly communicated.

C. The Committee shall reserve chalk space, banner space, and academic halls for the posting of campaign-specific materials on behalf of the ticket(s).

- D. The Committee shall review the finances and budget of ticket(s) and adjudicate the merits of materials with its own criteria.
- E. The Committee shall never be bound by precedent.
- F. The Committee shall be responsible for documenting all decisions on any and all matters.
- G. The Committee shall be free from the advisory opinions of other students.
- H. The Committee shall hold a debate and/or town hall style meeting with the ticket(s) prior to election day(s). The Committee shall also hold at least one debate for each senate seat category (class standing, school, commuter) as deemed necessary.
- I. The Committee shall proactively monitor the ticket(s) to insure strict adherence to the Constitution and Bylaws.
- J. The Committee shall be accessible 24/7 for the duration of campaigning and the day(s) of the election (with the exception of class, religious observances, previously scheduled medical procedures, and unforeseen circumstances).
- K. The Committee is charged with having the final say on any and all matters relating to the election.
- L. The Committee is responsible for meeting regularly and establishing a handbook of elections policies/procedures, which shall be confirmed by a majority vote of the senate.
- M. The Committee reserves the right to amend the rules and regulations it sets independently of the Constitution and Bylaws at any time with ample notice to the community. Said changes must be approved by the Senate body in special orders.

N. The Committee must prepare ballots in an environmentally sustainable fashion. It is at the Committee's discretion whether or not an option for abstention is included on the ballot.

O. The Committee has the authority to suspend elections for up to one (1) hour at any given time during election day(s) to resolve grievances or other matters requiring its attention.

P. The Committee is the ultimate authority on campaign finances.

Q. The Committee is the ultimate authority on a ticket's advertising efforts.

R. The Committee is the ultimate authority on the adjudication and sanctioning of grievances.

S. The Committee is responsible for creating and maintaining a non-Stetson issued email address for official correspondence.

T. The Committee shall convene special elections as required by provisions within.

U. The Committee shall abide by other limitations, expectations, and articulated duties herein.

Section 305: Grievances

Section 305.1: Definition

A grievance is recognized as any charge of misconduct leveled against a ticket, its affiliates, or volunteers

Section 305.2: General Provisions

- A. Grievances must be filed with the Chair of the Electoral Committee via the non- Stetson issued email address provided to the tickets and the community.
- B. Within twenty-four (24) hours of receipt, the Chair shall decide whether or not to hear the grievance. If he/she decides the grievance has merit and is not motivated to intimidate, delay, or bog down proceedings, then a meeting shall be called to rule if a violation of the Constitution, Bylaws, or rules and regulations has occurred.
- C. Tickets are entitled to representation for the hearing portion of the meeting.
- D. If the Committee decides an infraction has occurred, the representatives shall be released from the meeting and the Committee shall decide on sanctions.
- E. The Committee shall decide whether or not to make the particular details of a grievance and its sanction public.
- F. The Chair shall document and communicate all findings, evidence, and decisions to the tickets.

Section 305.3: Alternatives

In cases where the Chair senses an uncooperative working relationship between or amongst the tickets, he or she reserves the right to call a direct mediation to settle disputes and set aside differences.

Section 306: Sanctions

Section 306.1: Definition

Sanctions are recognized as punishments for violations of the Constitution, Bylaws, or rules and regulations set by the Electoral Committee. Sanctions may include but are not limited to the reduction of the campaign-spending cap, restricting the ability of tickets to campaign, requiring public apologies or acknowledgements, removing advertising options, or disqualification.

Section 306.2: Calculation of Sanctions

The Electoral Committee shall consider the severity of the infraction, the damage done, and patterns of behavior when calculating the necessity of sanctions.

Section 306.3: Reviewing Sanctions

Tickets may, via their representative, appeal sanctions directly to the Electoral Committee. They must outline why the sanction is unfair or crippling and provide an alternative plan for restitution and/or correction.

Code of Ethics:

Preamble

We, the members and officers of the Stetson University Student Government Association, do hereby pledge ourselves to this Code of Ethics. We intend to lead by serving the interests, needs, and wants of our fellow students; by maintaining a superior level of conduct that enables us to claim the mantle as effective, trustworthy leaders; by pledging ourselves to accountability if we transgress that which is reasonable, upright, and productive in the execution of our duties.

Section I. Ethical Standards for Senators

i. Senators are to adhere to their duties as outlined in the Constitution and Bylaws.

ii. Senators are to always act in the best interest of the student body. They shall make every reasonable attempt to fulfill their duties in good faith and with full regard for the welfare of others.

iii. Senators are to be forthright, honest, and fully transparent in their communications with their constituents. They shall never knowingly misrepresent the truth in their capacity as a representative of the Association.

iv. Senators are to conduct themselves in a professional manner when interacting as a representative of the Student Government Association or Stetson University.

v. Senators are to maintain respect for the University, its employees, their fellow public servants, and themselves.

vi. Senators are prohibited from bestowing favors, making undue use or influence of powers of office, or offer special considerations of any kind in exchange for anything of material or intrinsic value.

vii. Senators are prohibited from misusing, mismanaging, or misappropriating their position and/or equipment, facilities, or funds of the Association.

Section II. Ethical Standards for Executive Officers

i. Officers are to adhere to their duties as outlined in the Constitution and Bylaws.

ii. Officers are to always act in the best interest of the student body and the Student Senate of the Association for whom they serve. They shall make every reasonable attempt to fulfill their duties in good faith and with full regard for the welfare of others.

iii. Officers are to be forthright, honest, and fully transparent in matters of public record and coming changes to the University with the Student Senate and each other.

iv. Officers are to conduct themselves in a professional manner when interacting as a representative of the Student Government Association or Stetson University.

v. Officers are to maintain respect for the University, its employees, their fellow public servants, and themselves.

vi. Officers are prohibited from bestowing favors, making undue influence of powers of office, or offer special considerations of any kind in exchange for anything of material or intrinsic value.

vii. Officers are prohibited from misusing, mismanaging, or misappropriating their position and/or equipment, facilities, or funds of the Association.

viii. Officers are to put the wishes of the student body as expressed through resolutions of the Student Senate before their personal agendas. They shall work diligently to enact legislation in a timely manner after its passage.

Section III. Ethical Standards for Chair and Members of the Electoral Committee

i. The Chair and members of the Electoral Committee are to adhere to their duties as outlined in the Constitution and Bylaws.

ii. The Chair and members of the Electoral Committee are to act as unbiased representatives of legitimacy and constitutional authority in the student government. They are to represent the continued stability of a government in transition

iii. The Chair and members of the Electoral Committee are to be forthright, honest, and fully transparent in their communications with any and all members of the Stetson community with regard to elections.

iv. The Chair and members of the Electoral Committee will maintain the highest respect for the institution of student government.

v. The Chair and members of the Electoral Committee are strictly forbidden from bestowing favors, making undue use or influence of powers of office, or offer special considerations of any kind in exchange for anything of material or intrinsic value.

vi. The Chair and members of the Electoral Committee must pledge to uphold the Elections Code upon acceptance of service.

Section IV. Provisions for Alleging a Violation

i. Any member of the Association is qualified to bring forth an allegation of wrongdoing against another member of the Association during Special Orders of any regular meeting of the Student Government Association.

a.If the complaining member is the President Pro Tempore, they shall yield their presiding powers to the Chair of the Committee on Values and Ethics and then to the Legislative Committee Chair listed first in alphabetical order by Title of office.

b.If the complaining member is the President Pro Tempore and the accused violator of the Code of Ethics is a Legislative Committee Chair, they shall be automatically removed from consideration for presiding over the Senate.

c.If there is a complaint made against the President Pro Tempore, they shall yield their presiding powers to the Legislative Committee Chair listed first in alphabetical order.

d.No member of the Association may make complaints against themselves.

ii.Allegations of violating the Code of Ethics must be made before the full Senate in the form of an official letter outlining the allegation and providing at least one form of evidence listed herein: Original photograph(s), unedited video, email or other official correspondence, certification of a violation of the Student Handbook by the Dean of Students, any other original documents or content that may serve as proof that a violation has occurred.

iii.After the letter is read to the Senate by the complaining member, a majority vote shall be required to move into a formal hearing of the alleged violation. If a formal hearing is authorized, the Senate shall enter a closed session and guests shall be asked to clear the chamber.

iv.The Senate shall enter a period of debate on the alleged violation. The accused member or member(s) shall be called upon to provide testimony on the events cited as violations. They are entitled to face their accuser, to engage in an open discussion directly with them before the Senate and to speak in their own defense before other members of the body may speak. Upon speaking in their own defense and engaging their accuser, the Senate shall be permitted to debate the matter.

v.Discussion of the alleged violation of the Code of Ethics shall not conclude before every member of the Association who wishes to speak has spoken at least once.

vi.A majority vote shall be required to recognize that a violation of the Code of Ethics has occurred.

vii.In the event that the Senate recognizes a violation to the Code of Ethics has occurred, the next order of business shall be sanctioning the member responsible. Members of the Association shall put forth formal recommendations based on the sanctions outlined herein.

a.When making formal recommendations, members must specify the duration for which privileges shall be suspended if at all.

b. Multiple sanctions may be recommended as a single punishment for a violation of the Code of Ethics.

viii. A majority vote for any one of the sanctions shall be required for it to be recognized as binding. The presiding officer may, however, show leniency and pronounce judgment in the form of a less severe sanction. It is the right of any member to appeal the decision of the Chair if the body's decision is overruled. A two-thirds vote shall be required to reenact the original sanction.

ix. Sanctions take immediate effect upon the Senate's agreement.

x. The Senate shall move back into its regular business at the conclusion of the hearing.

Section V. Sanctions for Senators

i. Sanctions are binding in both meetings of the Senate and all committees under the direction of the Association.

ii. Only the following sanctions outlined herein shall be considered as valid punishments for violations of the Code of Ethics: Censure, Suspension of Voting Privileges, Suspension of Speaking Privileges, Expulsion from a Specific Office, Expulsion from the Association.

a. Censure: A statement of official commendation for violating the rules, policies, and procedures of the Association. A censure has no formal penalty other than simply stating a violation has occurred.

b. Suspension of Speaking Privileges: Senators shall be barred from speaking for a time specified by the Senate. They may, however, vote on all matters.

c. Expulsion from a Specific Office: If a Senator is serving in an additional capacity as a Legislative Committee Chair, a member of the Electoral Committee, as a Director within the Association, President Pro Tempore, Clerk of the Senate, or Parliamentarian, they may be dismissed from their duties. They will retain the right to serve as a Senator, however.

d. Expulsion from the Association: If a Senator is punished in this way, their rights, duties, and powers shall be immediately revoked.

Section VI. Sanctions for Executive Officers

i. Only the following sanctions outlined herein shall be considered as valid punishments for violations of the Code of Ethics: Censure, Expulsion from a Specific Office, Expulsion from the Association.

a. Censure: A statement of official commendation for violating the rules, policies, and procedures of the Association. A censure has no formal penalty other than simply stating a violation has occurred.

b. Expulsion from a Specific Office: If an Officer is punished in this way, they shall be dismissed from their duties. They may, however, join the Association as a Senator.

c. Expulsion from the Association: If an Officer is punished in this way, their rights, duties, and powers shall be immediately revoked, and they shall be additionally barred from service as a Senator.

Section VII. Amendments

i. An amendment to this document must be considered by the committee on policy reform.

ii. Amendments to the document require a two-thirds vote by the senate.
